In Memoriam:
FERDINAND ALOYS HERMENS
1907–1998

The Review of Politics is sad to announce the death of one of its founders, Professor Ferdinand Aloys Hermens on 2 February 1998 in Rockville, Maryland. Professor Hermens is survived by his wife of 60 years, Mary Ruth Roberts. From 1938 to 1959, Al Hermens was professor of political science at Notre Dame. He will be long remembered for his book Democracy or Anarchy, an attack on proportional representation.

Christianity and Politics

Special Issues

The Review of Politics will mark the passing of this millennium with two special issues given to essays and scholarly studies engaging in some way the relationship of Christianity and Politics. A broad interpretation of that theme is encouraged. Welcome are manuscripts that consider topics (or some aspect or instance thereof) such as Christianity and Liberalism, Catholicism and American Democracy, Christianity in Post-Modern Analysis, and thinkers such as Thomas More, John Calvin, Alexis de Tocqueville, Jacques Maritain, John Courtney Murray and Reinhold Niebuhr. Welcome are studies that bring the resources of the Christian tradition to bear on some problem of national or international politics. Welcome are studies in religion and politics in which Christianity is approached comparatively and/or in which systematic empirical research plays a role.

Communications indicating an intention to submit a manuscript are encouraged. Manuscripts for these issues will be received until April 1, 1999.
