

Contents

List of Contributors	page vii
Acknowledgements	ix
Introduction: The Accountability Impasse of the EU's New Economic Governance	1
Mark Dawson
PART I (RE)THEORISING ACCOUNTABILITY IN EMU
1 From Procedural to Substantive Accountability in EMU Governance	19
Adina Akbik and Mark Dawson
2 Reconsidering the Good of Improving Accountability	45
Roy L. Heidelberg
3 Markets as an Accountability Mechanism in EU Economic Governance	63
Armin Steinbach
4 The Case for Intra-executive Accountability in the Banking Union	81
Matthias Goldmann
PART II POLITICAL ACCOUNTABILITY
5 Democratic Accountability in the Banking Union: Is There Really a Gap?	107
Diane Fromage

6	The Political and Legal Accountability of the Eurogroup Menelaos Markakis	132
7	The Economic Dialogues with the Eurogroup: Substantive Accountability Claimed, but Unmet Adina Akbik	154
8	Parliamentary Accountability of the Country-Specific Recommendations: Effectiveness and Substance Tomasz P. Wozniakowski	177
PART III LEGAL ACCOUNTABILITY
9	Constructive Constitutional Conflict as an Accountability Device in Monetary Policy Ana Bobić	199
10	Adjudicating Transnational Solidarity Conflicts: Can Courts Ban the Destructive Potential? Anuscheh Farahat	217
11	Judicial Accountability of Financial Assistance in the Case of Eurozone Debtor Countries Teresa Violante	240
12	Human Rights Accountability in European Financial Assistance Anastasia Poulou	267
13	Constitutive Powers and Justification: The Duty to Give Reasons in EU Monetary Policy Joana Mendes	288
	Index	317