

IN HONOR OF
CHARLES AUSTIN BEARD

ALFRED A. KNOPF, INC. announces the inauguration of the Charles Austin Beard Memorial Prize. This prize, intended to honor a great American, comprising five hundred dollars in cash and a contract for volume publication on terms set forth in the entry blank, will be offered in even years for a work in Political Science and in odd years for a work in American History. Any citizen of the United States not over forty years of age at the time of the closing date for entries will be eligible.

MANUSCRIPTS must deal with those subjects, and in a suitable manner, likely to appeal to the educated and mature American lay reader rather than to the specialist. Doctoral dissertations or works of a purely scholarly nature with a necessarily limited appeal are not eligible and will not be considered by the publisher.

MANUSCRIPTS should be not shorter than 50,000 words nor longer than 150,000 words. Other things being equal, works of approximately 100,000 words in length will be favored.

MANUSCRIPTS must be submitted in clear typescript form complying in all respects with instructions set forth in the pamphlet which will be supplied candidates on application to the publisher who will also send a formal entry blank on request. Manuscripts must be in the publisher's hands complete and ready for the printer no later than July 31st of each year.

THE ROAD TO PEARL HARBOR

BY HERBERT FEIS

The coming of the war between the United States and Japan meticulously reported in a brilliant work of diplomatic history.

“Such a complete, scholarly, and balanced account of the events that it may be regarded as the final word.”—N.Y. Times.

“Because of this breadth and thoroughness of treatment, Mr. Feis’s book will undoubtedly be without a peer for some time to come.”—Far Eastern Quarterly.

“A scholar of recognized stature in the fields of economics and statecraft has here provided the first reasonably complete history of the origins of our war with Japan. . . . The closely detailed narrative which he has woven will stand for a long time, I imagine, as definitive within its chosen area.”—Walter Millis in N.Y. Herald Tribune.

“The primary task of the historian is ‘to establish the facts’ and Herbert Feis has admirably performed this task for the complicated and wearisome story of Japanese-American relations, 1939-1941.”—Political Science Quarterly.

“A remarkably clear and complete job of mapping for us every twist and turn of the road. . . . In time new materials may come to light, but there is little probability that they will alter the story appreciably.”—American Historical Review.
