

American Society of Law, Medicine & Ethics

Where Multidisciplinary Education Improves Practice

THE SOCIETY

The mission of the American Society of Law, Medicine & Ethics (ASLME) is to provide quality scholarship, debate, and critical thought to the community of professionals at the nexus of law, medicine, health policy, and ethics.

For more than twenty-five years, ASLME has fulfilled its mission by providing extensive opportunities for interdisciplinary education to its membership of attorneys, physicians, nurses, ethicists, educators, hospital and public administrators, risk managers, pharmacists, social workers, and students.

Our multidisciplinary approach to education and problem solving is unique.

PUBLICATIONS

The Journal of Law, Medicine & Ethics is a peer reviewed quarterly read by more than 4,500 health care professionals. It provides articles on such timely topics as health care quality and access, managed care, pain management, genetics, informed consent, end-of-life care, assisted dying, ethics committees, child/maternal health, reproductive health, HIV/AIDS, and public health. Issues include reviews of significant health policy developments, medicolegal case law, and books.

The Fall 1998 issue contains articles on the Human Genome Project and the 1998 U.S. Supreme Court decision in Bragdon v. Abbott. The Winter 1998 issue contains research articles on various aspects of the barriers to pain management under managed care and Medicaid and Medicare.

The American Journal of Law & Medicine is a law review fulfilling the need to improve communication between legal and medical professionals. Issues contain articles and notes—on themes in health law and policy, and on the legal, ethical, and economic aspects of medical practice, research, and education—and reviews of significant medicolegal case law.

The Winter 1998 issue contains articles on employer access to employees' job-related medical information and on pharmacists' legal responsibilities under OBRA 1990. The Summer & Fall 1999 symposium will present articles on patient and physician rights in the age of electronic medicine.

ASLME Briefings, the Society's newsletter, presents on a quarterly basis, updates on recent medicolegal developments that will affect health care professionals. The updates are provided by attorneys practicing at the nation's largest health law firms.

CONFERENCES

The Society sponsors continuing education conferences. Conferences are accredited for legal, medical, and nursing credit, with other professional education credits arranged as appropriate. Registration fees include all conference materials. Members register at reduced rates.

ASLME's 1999 conference agenda includes:

- Demystifying Cancer: A Program for Patients (Boston, Mass., April 9–10, 1999)
- The 20th Annual Health Law Teachers Conference (St. Louis, Mo., June 3–5, 1999)
- ASLME's 1999 Annual Meeting: Discontented Physicians as Employees: Changing Roles in Health Care (Cambridge, Mass., September 16–18, 1999)

LAW, MEDICINE & ETHICS

AMERICAN SOCIETY OF

The mission of the American Society of Law, Medicine & Ethics (ASLME) is to provide high-quality scholarship, debate, and critical thought to the community of professionals at the intersection of law, health care, and ethics.

For more than twenty-five years, ASLME has fulfilled its mission by providing extensive opportunities for interdisciplinary education to its membership of attorneys, physicians, nurses, ethicists, educators, allied health professionals, hospital and public administrators, risk managers, pharmacists, social workers, and students.

The great professional diversity of ASLME's membership makes it unique. ASLME provides a dynamic forum for its members to engage in a valuable exchange of ideas from a wide range of perspectives.

ASLME's diversity helps bring it to the forefront of the debate on topics such as pain management, managed care, genetics, right-to-die issues, and institutional ethics committees.

Ongoing efforts include:

- Publication of two quarterly journals — The Journal of Law, Medicine & Ethics and the American Journal of Law & Medicine.
- Continuing education conferences.
- Funded research.

AMERICAN JOURNAL OF LAW & MEDICINE SUBMISSION GUIDELINES

EDITORIAL SCOPE: The editors of the AMERICAN JOURNAL OF LAW & MEDICINE (AJLM) encourage the submission of manuscripts on a wide range of medicolegal topics. Acceptable subjects include health law and health policy; legal, ethical, social, and economic aspects of medical practice, education, and research; health-related insurance; and other issues involving the relationship of the life sciences to the social sciences and humanities. AJLM is interdisciplinary. Submissions from specialists in all health care-related disciplines are welcomed.

EDITORIAL ADDRESS: Send all materials to the Editor-in-Chief, AMERICAN JOURNAL OF LAW & MEDICINE, 765 Commonwealth Avenue, Suite 1672, Boston, Massachusetts, 02215.

GENERAL SUBMISSION FORMAT: Manuscripts must be typed and single-sided. They must be double-spaced, with liberal margins. Manuscripts should be submitted in triplicate, i.e., an original and two photocopies. The title of the paper and the author's name and address should be given only on the covering sheet. Papers should be a minimum of forty pages in length. If a paper is accepted, the author will be expected to provide a disk copy either in MS Word 6.0, 7.0, or in WordPerfect 5.1, 6.0.

ABSTRACTS: An abstract (of no more than 200 words), succinctly summarizing the content of the manuscript, should accompany the manuscript on a separate page.

REFERENCES: Footnotes must be numbered consecutively and double-spaced. All footnotes should conform to A Uniform System of Citation (16th ed.), which is published and distributed by the Harvard Law Review Association, Gannett House, Cambridge, MA 02138. Nonlawyers unfamiliar with this system should follow the citation form accepted in their discipline. When a paper is accepted, the editors will work by arrangement with the author to convert the footnotes into the proper form.

ILLUSTRATIONS: All illustrations, tables, graphs, and charts must be numbered and given suitable legends. Authors must indicate in the manuscript the appropriate positions of such graphics. Authors will be expected to provide either suitable disk graphics files or camera-ready copy.

SELECTION & EDITING TIMETABLE: On receipt of a manuscript, the editors will send a letter of acknowledgment. Authors will be notified of manuscript decisions within one to three months of receipt, depending on the length of the manuscript. Accepted manuscripts are usually published within three months of acceptance.

PROOF PAGES & AUTHOR REPRINTS: Authors will be given one set of proof pages prior to publication. Proof pages will incorporate textual revisions discussed between the editor and the author. Reprint order forms for perfect-bound reprints will accompany the proof pages. All orders must be prepaid.

RETURN OF MANUSCRIPTS: AJLM retains one copy of all manuscripts submitted for consideration. Copies are not returned unless the author so requests in writing and supplies AJLM with a return self-address envelope and adequate postage.

PUBLICATION TIME TABLE: AJLM is published quarterly: Spring; Summer & Fall; and Winter. It goes to press in February; June; and November, respectively.
