Hellenic and Roman Societies SLIDES COLLECTION

The Slides Collection contains over 6,600 coloured 35mm slides covering a wide variety of subjects, including sites on the Greek mainland, the Greek islands, Cyprus, Rome, Italy and the Roman Empire, Etruscan tomb paintings, Greek vases, Roman frescoes and mosaics, the Roman army and Roman Britain. Slides of artefacts form a large part of the collection and include bronzes, jewellery and vases as well as maps, plans, models and reconstructions.

Catalogues: Greek Slides (1993): £7; Roman Slides (1994) £6; both for £11 (postage £1 extra per volume)

Individual slides, sets and filmstrips with notes may be hired by members. Filmstrips are also available for sale to members and non-members. Details of current charges may be obtained from the Keeper of Slides.

THE SOCIETY FOR THE PROMOTION OF HELLENIC STUDIES

31-34 GORDON SQUARE, LONDON WC1H 0PP

PRESIDENT: PROFESSOR P.E. EASTERLING

The Society was founded in 1879 to advance the study of Greek language, literature, history, art and archaeology. It has done this ever since by various means, chief among them being the annual publication of the Journal of Hellenic Studies, and, since the 1950s, its supplement, Archaeological Reports, which are both supplied free of charge to members of the Society. Occasional monographs also appear in the series Supplementary Papers.

The Society also helps to maintain the Joint Library at 31-34 Gordon Square, in conjunction with the Roman Society and the Institute of Classical Studies of the University of London. Membership of the Hellenic Society allows the reader to borrow up to four books at a time, either in person or by post (within the UK). Members may also borrow slides from the Joint Library's extensive collection.

The Society also arranges an annual lecture series in London and helps to support other lectures throughout the UK in collaboration with the various local branches of the Classical Association. The Society aims to help those engaged in Hellenic Studies at all levels and to this end it makes grants to schools, colleges and universities; small grants to individual students are also available.

Membership is open to all, and there is a reduced rate for students. Subscriptions are due on January 1 each year. 1996 and 1997 rates are as follows: full members £27 (US $60), student associates £15 (US $30), corporate members £150, libraries (rates include postage): UK £40, overseas £41 (US $90). Life membership (£135) is available to those over 65 years of age, after 5 years ordinary membership.

THE SOCIETY FOR THE PROMOTION OF ROMAN STUDIES

31-34 GORDON SQUARE, LONDON WC1H 0PP

President: DR AVERIL M. CAMERON, FBA, FSA

The Society, founded in 1910 and based in London, is the leading organization for all those interested in the study of Rome and the Roman Empire. Its scope is wide, covering Roman history, archaeology, literature and art down to about A.D.700. It has a broadly based membership, drawn from over 25 countries and from all ages and walks of life. The Society publishes the Journal of Roman Studies, which deals with the Roman world in general, and also Britannia, a journal of Romano-British and connected studies, which includes an annual survey of Romano-British excavations.

The Society maintains with the Hellenic Society and in conjunction with London University's Institute of Classical Studies a joint library of works on classical antiquity and a collection of slides and film strips. Members resident in or visiting the U.K. may borrow books and slides and consult books belonging to the Institute. Meetings of the Society are held in London and in other parts of the U.K. together with other societies. An archaeology conference is held in alternate years at a venue outside London. Triennial conferences with the Hellenic Society and the Classical Association are held in either Oxford or Cambridge.

Annual subscriptions: Members and Schools, £25 (US $50) for either the JRS or Britannia (£40 (US $80) for both). Institutions other than Schools, £30 (US $60) for each publication. Students, £15 (US $30) - student membership is open to students registered at any institution of higher education in any country. Life membership for members over 65 with five years' membership, £125 (US $250).

All enquiries to the Secretary. Telephone 0171-387-8157; Email: romansoc@sas.ac.uk

THE CLASSICAL ASSOCIATION

The Classical Association has a worldwide membership and is open to all who value the study of the languages, literature and civilisations of ancient Greece and Rome. It creates opportunities for friendly exchange and co-operation among classicists, encourages scholarship through its journals and other publications, and supports classics in schools and universities. Every year it holds an annual conference, and sponsors branches all over the country which put on programmes of lectures and other activities.

The Classical Association has about 4,000 members. The annual subscription is £5, life membership is £105. Members receive Proceedings of the Classical Association once a year and a newsletter, CA News, twice a year. They may also subscribe at substantially reduced cost to the Classical Association journals Classical Quarterly, Classical Review, and Greece and Rome.

Applications for membership and subscriptions (cheques payable to 'The Classical Association') should be sent to the Treasurer, Richard Wallace, Dept. of Classics, Keele University, Newcastle under Lyme, Staffs ST5 5BG. The Treasurer can also give information about journal subscription rates, and about the Association's other publications, including the Greece and Rome supplements New Surveys in the Classics.

Contributions to the Journal should be sent to Dr R.L. Hunter, Pembroke College, Cambridge CB2 1RF. Please send photocopies or printout, retaining original copy. A style guide is printed in JHS vol. 110 (1990) 295-96. Copy on computer disk is also required, but please send disks only when your contribution has been accepted. Illustrations, including diagrams, must be supplied as camera-ready copy. For further details, please contact the Production Editor (Society address). Books for review should be addressed to the Librarian (Society address). The Journal does not accept unsolicited book reviews.
