Taxing the Rich A History of Fiscal Fairness in the United States and Europe

Kenneth Scheve & David Stasavage

"Scheve and Stasavage provide an engaging analytical history of taxation of the rich in the United States, Canada, and Western Europe from 1800 to the present. There is no doubt in my mind that this terrific book will be widely read, cited, and discussed."

—Jonas Pontusson, author of Inequality and Prosperity

Copublished with the Russell Sage Foundation

Cloth $45.00

Adam Smith His Life, Thought, and Legacy

Edited by Ryan Patrick Hanley

"This book provides an up-to-date guide to the entire range and breadth of Adam Smith's work, life, and influence. It weaves across disciplines and genres, providing a compendious account and covering all possible bases."

—Duncan Kelly, author of
The Propriety of Liberty

Cloth $35.00

The Star and the Stripes A History of the Foreign Policies of American Jews

Michael N. Barnett

"At this turning point for the future of Israel, Michael Barnett has written the most fair-minded and lively history of how American Jews have imagined themselves as a people with universal aspirations. The Star and the Stripes could not be more timely."

—Alan Wolfe, Boston College

Cloth $35.00

How Armies Respond to Revolutions and Why

Zoltan Barany

"Extremely accessible and impressive in its sweep, this book offers a practical and insightful framework for analyzing military actions during revolutions. Barany has a tremendous grasp of civil-military relations and knows his subject matter well."

—Risa Brooks, the author of
Shaping Strategy

Paper $29.95
Cloth $95.00

Power and International Relations A Conceptual Approach

David A. Baldwin

"Power is arguably the most important concept in international relations and David Baldwin is by far power's most astute analyst. He has made many contributions to our understanding of power during his career and this book is a worthy capstone to all of his thinking on this topic."

—Stephen Brooks, Dartmouth College

Paper $24.95

Caught The Prison State and the Lockdown of American Politics

Marie Gottschalk

"Gottschalk's commanding and disturbing Caught is our best guide to the political decisions and public policies that have created the carceral state and our present immobility on the issue of crime and its punishment."

—Michael Meranze, Los Angeles Review of Books

DARK MONEY

The Hidden History of the Billionaires Behind the Rise of the Radical Right

JANE MAYER

“Revelatory . . . persuasive, timely and necessary. . . [O]nly the most thoroughly documented, compendious account could do justice to the Kochs’ bizarre and Byzantine family history and the scale and scope of their influence.”

—The New York Times

“[D]eeply researched and studded with detail . . . it seems destined to rattle the Koch executive offices in Wichita as other investigations have not.”

—The Washington Post

LIES, INCORPORATED

The World of Post-Truth Politics

ARI RABIN-HAVT & MEDIA MATTERS FOR AMERICA

Eye-opening and indispensable, Lies, Incorporated takes an unflinching look at the powerful network of politicians and special interest groups that have launched coordinated assaults on the truth to shape American politics.

“Required reading for anyone who wants to understand how our policy-making process has been hijacked by special interests.”

—Rep. Keith Ellison, Co-Chair of the Congressional Progressive Caucus

ANCHOR | PAPER | 256 PAGES | $15.00

MARGARET THATCHER

At Her Zenith: In London, Washington and Moscow

CHARLES MOORE

“Hard to put down. . . This is an excellent book and brings Mrs. Thatcher back into the forefront long after her departure from the political scene. It is informative and interesting and belongs on the library shelf of anyone who appreciates the intricacies of British politics.”

—New York Journal of Books

SLEEPING GIANT

How the New Working Class Will Transform America

TAMARA DRAUT

“This is quite simply the best analysis yet of the difficult challenges and dynamic potential of today’s working class. It’s also a wonderful read that will leave you both moved and hopeful.”

—Bob Herbert,

Distinguished Senior Fellow at Demos and former Op-Ed Columnist for the New York Times

“Sleeping Giant sets the record straight about what most American workers face every day—and what it’s going to take to win a future where everyone who works hard in our country can thrive.”

Apply This Fall!

Since 1953, the APSA Congressional Fellowship Program has brought more than 2,200 scholars and professionals to Washington, DC, to gain a hands-on understanding of Congress and the legislative process. Fellows begin their fellowship year with a comprehensive four-week orientation with leading congressional experts and policy leaders. Fellows then serve full-time placements of their choosing in the House of Representatives or Senate.

The fellowship year also includes:

- Winter and spring seminar series on Congress
- A trip to the district or state of a Member of Congress
- Optional study visits to Annapolis, Maryland, and Ottawa, Canada

QUALIFICATIONS: Applications are welcome from political scientists who have completed a PhD in the last 15 years or will have defended a dissertation in political science by November 2017. Candidates must be US citizens or permanent residents. The program is open to scholars in all subfields of political science who can show a scholarly interest in Congress and the legislative process.

FELLOWSHIP YEAR: Orientation begins in November 2017. Office assignments run until August 15, 2018. Two optional programs precede the main fellowship year. Candidates may apply to take a course on Congress and Foreign Policy taught in September and October 2017, as well as apply to spend up to two months as a Visiting Scholar at the APSA Centennial Center, supported by the William A. Steiger Fund for Legislative Studies, also immediately before the main fellowship year.

STIPEND: $50,000 for the 9.5-month fellowship period, plus a travel allowance.

SELECTION: Preference is given to those who have not had extensive Capitol Hill experience.

APPLICATION PROCEDURE: The application period opens in September 2016, and applications are due December 1, 2016.

Applications must be submitted online and include:

- a detailed CV
- a 500-word personal statement explaining how the fellowship relates to professional goals
- the names and contact information for three professional references who have agreed to write letters of recommendation
- a writing sample

Applications available online this fall.

ENCYCLOPEDIA LIBERTY

By DENIS DIDEROT and JEAN LE ROND D'ALEMBERT
Edited by HENRY C. CLARK

Encyclopedic Liberty is the first attempt to translate and bring together some of the most significant political writing from the Encyclopédie, a hugely influential work. It includes eighty-one articles, written by at least fourteen different contributors and presented in readable modern English translations. The reader will find in these pages nothing less than a panoramic lexicon of the political thought and imagination of the mid-eighteenth century in Europe's leading Enlightenment home, on the very eve of the Atlantic revolutions.
