Editor-In-Chief

Calum MacDonald, Gloucestershire, UK

Tempo is the premier English-language journal devoted to 20th-century and contemporary concert music. Literate and scholarly articles, often illustrated with music examples, explore many aspects of the work of composers throughout the world. Written in an accessible style, approaches range from the narrative to the strictly analytical.

Editor-In-Chief

Christopher Mark, University of Surrey, UK

Editor

Allan Moore, University of Surrey, UK

twentieth-century music is a unique publication dedicated to leading research on all aspects of the music of the twentieth century - a period which may be interpreted flexibly to encompass, where appropriate, music from the late-nineteenth century to the early years of the twenty-first. The journal explores Western art music, music from non-Western traditions, popular music, film music, jazz, improvised music, and performance practice.

Editors

W. Dean Sutcliffe, University of Cambridge, UK
Cliff Eisen, King's College London, UK

Eighteenth-Century Music addresses a conspicuous gap in its field and serves as a prestigious forum for all eighteenth-century music research. The aims of this dedicated journal are to draw together disparate areas of research, challenge accepted historical assumptions and adopt a broad and interdisciplinary approach which will serve the whole eighteenth-century music community.

Notes for contributors

Three copies of the typescript should be submitted. This must be double spaced with margins of at least 1". Notes, bibliographies, appendixes and displayed quotations must also be double spaced. Contributors should write in English, or be willing to have their articles translated. Articles should not normally exceed 10,000 words but shorter papers are welcome. A cover page should be submitted with the article, containing the author's name and postal address, telephone number, and where possible, fax number and electronic mail address. An abstract between 100 and 150 words must be submitted which gives an informative and precise account of the paper. Please note that papers will not be accepted for publication without an abstract. When an article has been accepted for publication, the author may send a copy on computer diskette, together with details of the format and wordprocessor used. However, the publisher reserves the right to typeset any article by conventional means if the author's disk proves unusable.

Tables, graphs, diagrams and music examples must be supplied on separate sheets. Table headings should be typed above the table in the form 'Table 1. The musical categories'. Other captions should be typed double spaced in the same style on separate sheets. Tables, Figures (which include photographs) and music examples should each be consecutively numbered through the article and their approximate positions in the text noted in the margin of the typescript. Figures and music examples should, if possible, be supplied in a form suitable for direct reproduction. Photographs must be well contrasted black and white glossy prints, ideally measuring 8" x 6". Cross-references in the text to figures, etc. should be in the form '(see Example 1)', etc. MP3 sound files may be submitted to accompany a paper on the online version.

Permissions. Contributors are responsible for obtaining permission to reproduce any material in which they do not hold copyright and for ensuring that the appropriate acknowledgments are included in their typescript. Authors of articles published in the journal assign copyright to Cambridge University Press (with certain rights reserved) and will receive a copyright assignment form for signature on acceptance of the paper.

Headings. The article title and subheadings should be typed using initial capitals only for the first word and any proper names.

Notes should be kept to a minimum and numbered consecutively through the text with raised numbers outside punctuation. Type the notes on separate sheets at the end of the article.

Bibliographical references. References must be arranged alphabetically under author(s) name(s) and then in chronological order if several papers by the same author are cited. Surname should precede author's initials: in respect of co-authors, the initials should precede surname. The full title of the paper must be given together with first and last page numbers. Book titles should follow the new style noting that the publisher as well as place of publication is now required.

Discography. Contributors are encouraged to provide a Discography when appropriate. Use the style:
Joan Baez, 'Song title', Recently. Gold Castle Records. 171 004-1. 1987

Quotations. Use single quotation marks except for quotations within quotations which should have double. Quotations of more than c. forty words should be indented and typed double spaced without quotation marks. Type the source on the last line at the right-hand margin.

Proof correction. Contributors receive proofs for correction (together with their original manuscript) on the understanding that they can provide a suitable mailing address and undertake to return the proofs plus manuscript within three days of receipt. Corrections should be restricted to printer's errors, and any other amendments marked will be made at the discretion of the editors and publishers.
