

Political Scientist Delegates to the 1980 Democratic or Republican Party Conventions

PS is planning on having a piece in the winter issue on political scientists who served as delegates to the 1980 Democratic or Republican Party Conventions, and welcomes information on names of political scientists who served as delegates to either of the party conventions. Please send information to the Editor of PS, in care of the Association.

Willner moved that the Committee on Professional Ethics and Academic Freedom be requested to establish a set of general policy guidelines for contingency planning for participation of the American Political Science Association in professional meetings held in countries where there may be violations of human rights.

Johnson moved an amendment that the Committee . . . be requested to establish a set of general policy guidelines and other proposed courses of action. . . . Willner accepted the amendment. The motion, as amended, was approved without objection.
