TO THOSE WISHING TO SUBMIT MANUSCRIPTS

Manuscripts for consideration should be submitted in four, double-spaced copies. Footnotes should be double-spaced and placed at the end of the manuscript. Manuscripts are sent to referees anonymously and should be prepared accordingly. Library of Congress transliteration should be used. In general, articles should not exceed twenty-five pages. Manuscripts will not be returned unless postage is provided.

The policy of the Slavic Review is not to consider materials that have been published or that are being considered for publication elsewhere.

Publication of articles in the Slavic Review is ordinarily limited to those submitted by members of the AAASS. Nonmembers wishing to submit manuscripts are asked to request a membership application.

The Enigma Of Soviet Petroleum Half-Empty or Half-Full?

Marshall I. Goldman

"...The West must be prepared to help the Soviet oil industry by supplying new technology in order to keep Eastern Europe from competing in world oil markets... Not a popular message to deliver in the U.S.... but he (Goldman) may be right if the Soviets are to exploit fully what could be the biggest oil field in the world."
