The Nutrition Society has as its object the advancement of the scientific study of nutrition and its application to the maintenance of human and animal health.

Application for membership is invited from anyone whose work has contributed to the scientific knowledge of nutrition, whether such work has been in the laboratory, the field or the clinic, and whether experimental, clinical, agricultural or statistical in nature. There is also a student membership scheme with reduced subscriptions.

Particulars of the Nutrition Society and application forms for membership may be had from the Honorary Secretary, The Nutrition Society, Chandos House, 2 Queen Anne Street, London W1M 9LE.

The British Journal of Nutrition (ISSN 0007-1145) is published once every two months by the Cambridge University Press for The Nutrition Society, which owns it and controls its publication. A volume consists of three parts and two volumes appear each year.

Subscriptions to the Society's Publications. For non-members of The Nutrition Society the subscription including postage, to volumes 49 and 50, 1983, of the Journal, is £96.00 net per annum, payable in advance to Cambridge University Press, The Edinburgh Building, Shaftesbury Road, Cambridge CB2 2RU, or to any bookseller. The subscription in USA and Canada is US $250.00, and inquiries there should be addressed to Cambridge University Press, 32 East 57th Street, New York, N.Y. 10022. Single issues are £19.00 (US $49.50 in USA and Canada); postage extra. All orders must be accompanied by payment. POSTMASTER: send address changes in USA and Canada to Cambridge University Press, 32 East 57th Street, New York, N.Y. 10022.

A claim for the replacement of a publication lost in transmission will not be entertained unless made immediately on receipt of the subsequent issue.

Second class postage paid at New York, N.Y. and at additional mailing offices.

For details of the Proceedings of the Nutrition Society, and copying, see inside back cover.

DIRECTIONS TO CONTRIBUTORS

These appear in full in this issue. They will not appear in the remaining parts of this volume and, in future, will be printed only in the first part of each volume.

Attention is Drawn to the Following Change

A new system of presenting references using full journal titles and first and last pages of cited articles has been introduced. This will be implemented in Volume 50 and subsequently.
