

RECENT ADDITIONS TO THE ASSOCIATION'S LIBRARY

BOOKS

- A B C of Helicopters, by J W R Taylor (Ian Allan Limited)
The Helicopter and How it Flies, by J S Fay (Sir Isaac Pitman)
Flight Handbook, 5th Edition (Iliffe & Sons)
Observer's Book of Aircraft, by Green & Pollinger (Frederick Warne & Co Ltd)
The World's Fighting Planes,
by Green & Pollinger (Macdonald & Co)
Mass-balancing of Aircraft Control Surfaces,
by H Templeton (Chapman & Hall)

PAPERS

- Planning for Urban Heliports, by Horonjeff & Lapin
The Convertiplane, by Colonel W B Bunker
The Domain of the Helicopter, by R Hafner
(Seventh Louis Blériot Lecture reprinted from the Journal of the R Ae S)

Material from the Library is available on loan to Members
The Association also holds a number of 16 m m films which are available to Members and details of these can be obtained from the Office

REPRODUCTION OF EARLY ISSUES OF THE JOURNAL

The first six volumes of the Journal have now been reproduced in book form
These are bound in blue with gold lettering on the cover and spine

They comprise the 24 issues of the Journal between July, 1947, and April, 1953, in the form of three books each containing two volumes as follows —

- Book I Vols 1 and 2, July, 1947 — March, 1949
(Also includes 1946 and 1947 Bulletins)
Book II Vols 3 and 4, June, 1949 — March, 1951
Book III Vols 5 and 6, June, 1951 — April, 1953

These books are obtainable from the Association's Office at £5 per book
Bound copies of Volume 7 are also available at £2 10s 0d per book

Loose-leaf binders for the Association's Journal are available from the Office at a cost of 13/9d Each binder, with gold lettering on the spine, holds eight Journals