

CONTENTS OF No. 331, SEPTEMBER 1980

	page
A. LIVINGSTONE: Johnsomervilleite, a new transition-metal phosphate mineral from the Loch Quoich area, Scotland	833
M. J. WILSON, D. JONES, and J. D. RUSSELL: Glushinskite, a naturally occurring magnesium oxalate	837
RAB NAWAZ: Morphology, twinning, and optical orientation of gismondine	841
P. H. NIXON, N. A. CHAPMAN, and J. V. SMITH: Origin of Ba-rich sanidine megacrysts in a porphyry from Papua New Guinea	845
KOSUKE ONUMA and MASAHIDE AKASAKA: Clinopyroxene with $Si < Al_{IV}$ in the join $CaFeAlSiO_6$ - $CaTiAl_2O_6$	851
D. ROBINSON, R. A. NICHOLLS, and L. J. THOMAS: Clay mineral evidence for low-grade Caledonian and Variscan metamorphism in south-western Dyfed, south Wales	857
D. C. BAIN, P. F. S. RITCHIE, D. R. CLARK, and D. M. L. DUTHIE: Geochemistry and mineralogy of weathered basalt from Morvern, Scotland	865
J. JUST: Bismutohauchecornite—new name: hauchecornite redefined	873
R. I. GAIT and D. C. HARRIS: Arsenohauchecornite and tellurohauchecornite: new minerals in the hauchecornite group	877
H. SCHNEIDER, K. WOHLLEBEN, and A. MAJDIC: Incorporation of impurities in tridymites from a used silica brick	879
J. F. W. BOWLES, E. A. JOBBINS, and B. R. YOUNG: A re-examination of cheralite	885
R. FREER and W. O'REILLY: The diffusion of $Fe^{2+}$ ions in spinels with relevance to the process of maghemitization	889
D. ALUN HUMPHRIES, JOHN H. THOMAS, PETER A. WILLIAMS, and ROBERT F. SYMES: The chemical stability of mendipite, diableite, chloroxiphite, and cumengéite, and their relationships to other secondary lead(II) minerals	901
R. A. MASON: Changes in crystal morphology of synthetic reedmergnerite ( $NaBSi_3O_8$ ) during ordering experiments	905
A. J. HALL, B. D. CERVELLE, and P. R. SIMPSON: An optical anomaly possibly due to optical activity in some uniaxial opaque ore minerals	909
PETER W. SCOTT: Zoned pyrozenes and amphiboles from camptonites near Gran, Oslo region, Norway	913
M. BROWN, C. G. TOPLEY, and G. M. POWER: The origin of the diorites and associated rocks of Chouet, north-western Guernsey, Channel Islands	919
T. CLAYTON: Hydrobasaluminite and basaluminite from Chickerell, Dorset	931
A. R. PHILPOTTS and C. D. DOYLE: Immiscibility in tholeiites: a discussion	939
F. A. SHAMS, G. C. JONES, and D. R. C. KEMPE: Blueschists from Topsin, Swat District, NW Pakistan	941
JOHN B. PARISE, CHRISTOPHER CUFF, and FRANK H. MOORE: A neutron diffraction study of topaz: evidence for a lower symmetry	943
J. N. BENNETT and J. N. GRANT: Analysis of fluid inclusions using a pulsed laser microprobe	945
A. M. CLARK, E. E. FEJER, A. G. COUPER, G. S. BEARNE, and V. K. DIN: Additional data on sugilite	947
J. OSTWALD: Notes on a Co-Ni disulphide and a Co-Ni-Fe thiospinel from the Kalgoorlie district, Western Australia	950
R. S. W. BRAITHWAITE and HILARY CORKE: Kidwellite from Cornwall	952
Book Reviews	955
