The Formation of the German Chemical Community (1720–1795)

by Karl Hufbauer

Well before Germany emerged as a single nation or chemistry as a clearly defined profession, German chemists had formed a national scientific community that presaged the increasing specialization so characteristic of modern science. Hufbauer's pioneering prosopographical study of this community is rich in implications for the social history of science. Illustrations and tables throughout; hardcover $40.00, paperback $14.95.

Marxism and Modernism

An Historical Study of Lukács, Brecht, Benjamin, and Adorno

by Eugene Lunn

"A fine piece of intellectual history. . . . It makes available an important and complex body of literature."—Mark Poster "A very important work. Mr. Lunn's overall thesis offers an exciting and original perspective."—Russell A. Berman $29.95.

The Plan of St. Gall: In Brief

An Overview Based on the Three-Volume Work
by Walter Horn and Ernest Born

by Lorna Price

Combining a succinct text by Price and extraordinary typography and design by Born, this short work conveys the majesty of the award-winning three-volume Plan of St. Gall and provides readers with an outline of the reconstruction of the architecture, economy, and life in a paradigmatic Carolingian monastery. The book includes selected facsimile illustrations, and also a note on architectural scale models and on the reconstruction scale model of the monastery of the Plan of St. Gall, as interpreted by Horn and Born, and crafted in basswood by Carl Bertil Lund. Large format; color illustrations throughout; hardcover $55.00, paperback $27.50.

Who Voted for Hitler?

Richard F. Hamilton

“The degree to which the author has immersed himself in local conditions in Germany and local politics is admirable...Richard Hamilton should be congratulated for having demolished some old shibboleths and having asked important questions.”—New York Times Book Review.

Cloth, $50.00. Limited Paperback Edition, $16.50
