

News and Notes

Activities

Anne Armstrong, Herbert H. Lehman College, CUNY, has returned from her research leave in Antigua.

Carol M. Barger, Southern Methodist University, participated in the U.S. Department of State's Scholar-Diplomat Seminar for Legal Affairs, February 28-March 3, 1972.

Ruth A. Bevan, Yeshiva University, will be on leave during 1972-73.

Joseph B. Board, Union College, attended the third annual meeting of the Scandinavian Political Science Association in Gothenburg, Sweden, August 18-21, 1971, and the U.S. Department of State's Scholar-Diplomat Seminar in Western European Affairs, November 8-12, 1971.

Philip E. Chartrand, Catholic University of America, participated in the U.S. Department of State's Scholar-Diplomat Seminar for Legal Affairs, February 28-March 3, 1972.

Charles L. Cochran, U.S. Naval Academy, participated in the U.S. Department of State's Scholar-Diplomat Seminar for Legal Affairs, February 28-March 3, 1972.

Patrick Crecine, University of Michigan, has been appointed to a new National Board on Graduate Education, established by the Conference Board of Associated Research Councils.

Erik Damgaard, Institut for Statskundskab, Aarhus University, Denmark, is spending the academic year 1971-72 as a visiting scholar in the Political Science Department at Yale University. He was the recipient of an American Council of Learned Societies grant. He gave a paper at the Midwest Political Science Association meetings on "A Coalition Approach to Legislative Behavior: The Case of Denmark." Mr. Damgaard has published papers on legislative and party behavior in Scandinavia in both English and Danish.

Joseph Dunner, Yeshiva University, will return from sabbatical leave in September 1972. During his leave, he was a guest of the governments of Israel and the Federal Republic of Germany.

John P. Entelis, Fordham University, has been awarded a National Science Foundation Institutional grant through Fordham's Office of Research

Services and a Faculty Research Grant from the Social Science Research Council for research this summer in Tunisia on university students and an emerging counter-culture in Tunisian politics.

John Fried, Herbert H. Lehman College, CUNY, was an expert witness at the Honolulu sit-in (Honeywell fragmentation bombs) case; and he read a paper at the International Conference on Indochina in Algiers.

George Grassmuck, University of Michigan, has returned after two and a half years in Washington, D.C. He served, first, as Coordinator of International Programs for the Department of Health, Education and Welfare and Special Assistant to the Secretary; he then spent eighteen months as an executive assistant at the White House.

Jonathan Hawley, University of Tulsa, has been on leave since January 1971 to serve in Washington as legislative assistant to Congressman Guy Vander Jagt (R. Mich.).

Mary F. Katzenstein, Massachusetts Institute of Technology, participated in the U.S. Department of State Scholar-Diplomat Program on Population Studies, February 14-18, 1972.

Activities

Martin L. Kilson, Jr., Harvard University, has been appointed a member of the National Council on the Humanities.

Jon P. Kraus, State University College, Fredonia, has been awarded a 1971 State University Research Foundation Award.

Irving Kristol, New York University, has been appointed a member of the National Council on the Humanities.

James G. March, Stanford University, has been appointed to a new National Board on Graduate Education, established by the Conference Board of Associated Research Councils.

Michael Milenkovitch, Herbert H. Lehman College, CUNY, has returned from his research leave in Yugoslavia.

John D. Millett, Ohio Board of Regents, Columbus, has been appointed to a new National Board on Graduate Education, established by the Conference Board of Associated Research Councils.

Norman H. Nie, University of Chicago, is on leave for one year to do research at the University of Leiden in the Netherlands.

Julius Paul, College at Fredonia, SUNY, has been awarded a senior fellowship by the National Endowment for the Humanities to pursue a study of "Bodily Integrity and Public Policy: The Problem of Personal Freedom."

Martin Plax, Case Western Reserve University, has received a fellowship for Younger Humanists from the National Endowment for the Humanities to work on the problem of ghettos and modernization. He will be on leave for the academic year 1972-73.

Stuart H. Rakoff, SUNY, Binghamton, has been selected to participate in the 1972 Summer Institute on Computer Science in Social and Behavioral Science Research, to be held at the University of Colorado with support from the National Science Foundation.

Andrew Scott, University of North Carolina, Chapel Hill, has received a Kenan leave of absence for 1972-73.

Donald R. Thurston, Union College, received a Union College Ford Foundation Faculty Department Grant and a grant from the Japan Studies Committee, East Asian Institute, Columbia University, for a year's leave to update and revise a monograph on the Japan Teachers Union.

Sidney Verba, University of Chicago, is on leave for one year to conduct research at the Institute of Sociology, The Sorbonne, Paris.

Stephen L. Wasby, Southern Illinois University, spent part of the summer at Madison, Wisconsin, continuing research on transmission of Supreme Court decisions to law enforcement officers.

Guenter Weissberg, Colby College, is on sabbatical leave. He received an appointment as visiting scholar at Columbia University where he is associated with the Institute of War and Peace Studies, doing research on the relationship between the United Nations and the International Court of Justice, and on current legal developments on the sea.

Manfred W. Wenner, North Illinois University, participated in the U.S. Department of State Scholar-Diplomat Seminar for Population Studies, February 14-18, 1972.

Robert Woetzel, Boston College, organized and directed the first International Criminal Law Conference held last September in Racine, Wisconsin.

New Appointments

Bruce Buene de Mesquita, assistant professor, Michigan State University.

Sylvan Feldstein, staff specialist, State Study Commission on New York City Government.

David V. Fleischer, professor adjunto, Universidade de Brasilia, formerly of University of Florida.

Herbert Garfinkle, professor, Michigan State University.

Klaus D. Grimm, research associate, U.S. Department of Labor, Region IX, San Francisco, California.

William John Hanna, editor, COMPARATIVE URBAN RESEARCH, Herbert H. Lehman College, CUNY.

Russell Harrison, assistant professor, Rutgers University; formerly of University of North Carolina, Chapel Hill.

Duncan MacRae, William Rand Kenan Professor of Political Science and Sociology, University of North Carolina; formerly of the University of Chicago.

Lewis C. Mainzer, editor, POLITY, University of Massachusetts.

Robert Rhodes, professor, Edinboro State College; he has also been appointed to the Governor's Criminal Justice Commission for Northwest Pennsylvania.

Steven Schlesinger, instructor, Rutgers University.

Kenneth R. Simmonds, senior editorial advisor, Oceana Publications International Affairs Department.

Jerry W. Weinberger, assistant professor, Michigan State University.

Orion White, associate professor, University of North Carolina, Chapel Hill; formerly of the Maxwell School of Citizenship and Public Affairs, Syracuse University.

Visiting and Temporary Appointments

Paul R. Abramson, Computer Institute for Social Science Research (Part-time research); Michigan State University.

Duncan Black, Michigan State University; University College of North Wales.

Ada Finifter, Computer Institute for Social Science Research (Part-time research); Michigan State University.

Herbert F. Weisberg, University of Rochester, Spring 1972; University of Michigan.

Administrative Appointments

Melvin H. Bernstein, special assistant to the vice chancellor for student affairs, University of California, Irvine.

Hugh F. Cline, president, Russell Sage Foundation.

Katherine M. Klotzburger, director of research, chancellor's advisory committee on the status of women, City University of New York.

Raymond G. McKelvey, director of special projects, The Los Angeles World Affairs Council.

Fred A. Sondermann, chairman, Colorado College.

Promotions

Paul R. Abramson, Michigan State University: associate professor.

Frederick Hartwig, Union College: assistant professor.

Timothy Hennessey, Michigan State University: associate professor.

Dorothy Buckton James, Herbert H. Lehman College, CUNY: associate professor.

Manindra K. Mohapatra, Old Dominion University: assistant professor.

Baljit Singh, Michigan State University: professor.

Michael A. Weinstein, Purdue University: professor.