THE CLAUDE C. EGGERTSEN DISSERTATION PRIZE: This $1000 prize will be awarded for the most outstanding dissertation in the History of Education completed in the previous year. The prize will be first awarded at the Society's annual meeting in 2000.

Inquiries should be directed to Professor Roberta Wollons, Department of History, Indiana University Northwest, 3400 Broadway, Gary, Indiana 46408.

THE HISTORY OF EDUCATION SOCIETY AWARD: This award of $500 will be made biennially to the best essay in the history of education published in any journal over the previous two years. The next award will be presented at the fall 2000 meeting of the History of Education Society. Any article published in 1998 or 1999 will be eligible for the award.

THE HENRY BARNARD PRIZE: This prize of $500 is awarded biennially to the best essay in the history of education by a graduate student. The next award will be presented at the fall 2001 meeting of the History of Education Society. The recipient will have the essay published in the History of Education Quarterly.

Inquiries regarding these two awards should be directed to the chairperson of the Prize Committee: Professor Jonathan Zimmerman, Department of Humanities and Social Sciences, School of Education, New York University, New York, New York 10003.

OUTSTANDING BOOK AWARD: This award of $500 is made biennially to the author of the best book on the history of education published in the two previous years. The committee will accept nominations but will also make every effort to review all relevant works, whether or not they have been nominated. The award for books bearing 1999 and 2000 publication dates will be announced at the annual meeting of the Society in 2001.

Inquiries regarding the Outstanding Book Award should be directed to the chairperson: Professor Daniel Perlstein, 3525 Tolman Hall, Graduate School of Education, University of California, Berkeley, CA 94720-1670.

The Society reserves the right not to make awards in those years when the Prize Committee judges all entries to be of insufficient quality.
