The British and Irish Association of Law Librarians was founded in 1969 to promote the better administration and exploitation of law libraries and legal information units.

Full membership is open to persons and institutions engaged in the provision or exploitation of legal literature. Associate membership is open to individuals and institutions not so engaged, but who support the aims of the Association. Members are entitled to participate in Association activities, about which they are automatically notified.

Further information and membership application forms may be obtained from the Administrator at the above address.

FIRST SUPPLEMENT NOW AVAILABLE

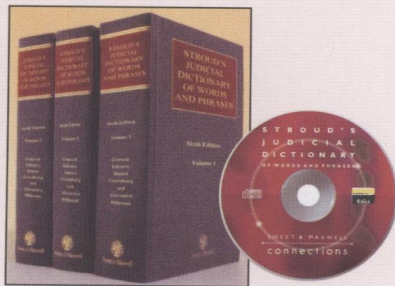

Stroud's

JUDICIAL DICTIONARY OF WORDS & PHRASES
SIXTH EDITION

The Law Defined

The leading legal dictionary since 1890, Stroud has been brought into the 21st century with the 6th edition, now also available on CD-ROM for the first time.

A classic text since 1890 now in its sixth edition, Stroud is a powerful research and reference tool that collates thousands of definitions of legal words and phrases. Placing key terms in context and referring you to legislative and case material, Stroud is an essential reference for every legal library.

- Comprehensive - The new, sixth edition of Stroud is better than ever, noting every judicial or statutory definition which is likely to be of use to the practitioner.
- Up-to-date - Stroud has been extensively revised since the last edition and is completely up-to-date with all the latest terms and phrases defined.
- Streamlined - The sixth edition consolidates much of the older material, to make your research even easier and more efficient. Stroud in print is a manageable 3 volumes.

- Easy to use - Stroud on CD-ROM makes your research even easier, enabling you to search, browse and print, with instant cross-referencing via hyper-text linking.
- Supplemented regularly - the first supplement print is now available. In addition, Stroud on CD-ROM contains a hyperlink giving you instant access to a free web-based updating service during 2002.

Save over £260!

If you buy Stroud on both print and CD-ROM, you'll save a total of £261. Call 020 7449 1111 today to order.
