Faith Makes Us Live

Surviving and Thriving in the Haitian Diaspora
MARGARITA A. MOONEY

"One of those rare books that succeeds in making a valuable contribution on at least three fronts: it extends the literature on religion and immigration... it demonstrates to scholars interested in faith-based service organizations that the larger relationships between church and state must be considered carefully through a comparative framework, and it provides students of religion with a compelling, up-close-and-personal account of how faith matters in the daily lives of Haitian immigrants."
