BROWN UNIVERSITY

Miss Margaret B. Stillwell, curator of the Annmary Brown Memorial of Providence, has been appointed research professor of bibliography at Brown University. The Memorial, which houses art treasures and rare Fifteenth Century books from some of the world's earliest printing presses, has been transferred into the University's keeping.

MEDIAEVAL ACADEMY

At the meeting of the Academy at the Morgan Library on May 1, 1948, discussion was held concerning the Census of Mediaeval and Renaissance Manuscripts in the United States and Canada, prepared by Seymour de Ricci and W. J. Wilson, and published by the H. W. Wilson Company a few years ago. At the request of the ACLS the Mediaeval Academy of America has accepted the responsibility for continuing the project by compilation of supplementary lists. Information should be sent to Charles R. D. Miller, Executive Secretary of the Mediaeval Academy of America, 1430 Massachusetts Ave., Cambridge, Mass.

Herbert Reichner, 34 East 62d Street, New York City, has published a 60-page catalogue entitled "A Selection of Books Illustrating the Spirit of the Renaissance. Literature, Fine Arts, Philosophy and Education, Science and Medicine, Music, Theatre."
