In the Summer/Fall 1988 issue of the JOURNAL (Vol. 30, Nos. 2-3) there appeared an article by Cynthia McClintock entitled, "The War on Drugs: The Peruvian Case."

Due to inadvertent error, the meaning of one sentence was altered. The second sentence of the second paragraph on page 127 should have read as follows:

Perhaps the most important question raised by the Peruvian case, however, is whether or not the US should give a higher priority to anti-drug efforts than to counterinsurgency, as US policy in Peru has appeared to do.<sup>1</sup>
