INTERNATIONAL LAW PERSPECTIVE

A concise, time-saving, monthly report acclaimed by the international community. Solving two major problems, it

- 1) Keeps international lawyers and scholars current on a continuous basis in the field of international law.
- 2) Eliminates the need to sift through an overabundance of writing and opinion—much of it duplicative or insignificant.

THE MIDDLE EASTERN STATES AND THE LAW OF THE SEA

Ali A. El-Hakim

Given the recent OPEC decisions and the ongoing Third Conference on the law of the sea, this is a most timely and needed book. El-Hakim explains the practices and policies of the sixteen Middle Eastern states toward the international law of the sea. The author surveys and analyzes both the settled and the still outstanding problems regarding continental shelf boundaries and islands of disputed sovereignty in the Arabian Gulf, as well as the issues of offshore boundary delimitation and joint exploration projects in the Red Sea. Includes a number of important documents which have not been generally available and which will make this study a valuable resource for all students of maritime legal questions.
