

The Congressional Fellows are scheduled to arrive here in mid-November for a three-week orientation period. They will begin working in Congressional offices of their choice about December 1, 1976. The Program ends August 15, 1977.

The eight winners were selected on the basis of superior academic training and experience. Final selections were made by an Advisory Committee made up of top government officials, Washington newsmen, and political scientists.

Political Scientists

Sidney Waldman, Associate Professor of Political Science, Haverford College.

George Kurdanis, Ph.D. Candidate, Department of Political Science, University of Wisconsin, Madison

Marsha Nye Wice, Assistant Professor of Political Science, Duquesne University.

Harris Nathan Miller, Ph.D. Candidate, Department of Political Science, Yale University.

Robert Weber, Assistant Professor of Government, St. John's University.

Journalists

Kristen M. Kelch, Reporter, Christian Science Monitor.

Clark L. Reid, Political Writer and Special Features Reporter, The Knoxville Journal.

Susan Sachs, Statehouse Reporter, The State Journal-Register (Illinois).

ACLS-ACE Meetings

Robert G. Seigliano of Boston College, the APSA Delegate to the American Council of Learned Societies; Evron M. Kirkpatrick, APSA Executive Director; and Walter E. Beach, Assistant Director, represented the APSA at the 1976 Annual Meeting of the Society which was held in January at the Johns Hopkins University in Baltimore. H. Field Haviland, Jr., The Fletcher School, the Vice Chairman of ACLS was also present at the meeting. Later in January, Dr. Kirkpatrick and Mr. Beach represented the Association at the Second National Meeting of Disciplinary Association Executives, of the American Council on Education, which was held in Washington. Both meetings provided opportunities for Association representatives to discuss matters of mutual interest with representatives from other Associations.

1976 International Political Science Association Congress Charter Flight

There are numerous charter flights available to England this summer; some members may wish to use one of them to attend the IPSA meeting in Edinburgh, Scotland. While the National Office has made no effort to explore all the possibilities, it wishes to call your attention to one possibility which will depart Washington for London, August 1 and return August 23. A brochure providing details on the flight is available from the Association. The Association also recommends individuals planning to attend the IPSA Congress consider alternative flight opportunities including other charter flights from their locality and APEX (Advanced Payment Excursion Fares) possibilities.

General information on the IPSA Congress including the preliminary program and where to write about lodging information was published in the Winter 1976 PS.

APSA Committees

The following is a list of Association Committees with members who have been appointed by Presidents of the Association with the consent of the Council. Members of the Association are invited to correspond with the Chairperson of any Committee concerning subjects with which his or her Committee is dealing.

I. Constitutional Committees

Administrative Committee

James David Barber, Duke University

Samuel H. Beer, Harvard University

James MacGregor Burns, Williams College,
Chairperson

Fred I. Greenstein, Princeton University

Barbara Hinckley, University of Wisconsin,
Madison

Betty A. Nesvold, San Diego State University

Samuel C. Patterson, University of Iowa

Nominating Committee

Terms expiring December 31, 1977:

Betty Glad, University of Illinois

Ole Holsti, Duke University

Gerhard Loewenberg, University of Iowa

Terms expiring December 31, 1976:

Clara Penniman, University of Wisconsin,
Madison, Chairperson

Lucian W. Pye, MIT

Sidney Wise, Franklin & Marshall College

Board of Trustees,

APSA Trust and Development Fund

Term expiring at end of service as Treasurer:

Betty A. Nesvold, San Diego State University,
Chairperson

Terms expiring December 31, 1978:

Vincent Browne, Howard University

Martha Derthick, Brookings Institution

Terms expiring December 31, 1977:

Charles O. Jones, University of Pittsburgh

Donald R. Matthews, University of Washington

Terms expiring December 31, 1976:

Ernest Griffith, Washington, D.C.

Donald Van Meter, Ohio State University

1976 Annual Meeting Program Committee

David Apter, Yale University

Peter Bachrach, Temple University