Membership of the Institute is open to any person with interests in the fields of African ethnology, sociology, and linguistics. The membership subscription is 25s. per annum (or the equivalent in other currencies), and entitles subscribers to receive the quarterly journal Africa post free. Application for membership should be addressed to the Secretary, 17 Waterloo Place, London, S.W. 1.

Notes to Contributors to Africa

Contributions are welcomed and should be addressed to the Editor. Contributors receive twenty-five free copies of articles published: further copies can be supplied at cost price on request.

Where possible, proofs are submitted to authors for correction but it is requested that only essential corrections are made; additional matter cannot be inserted at proof stage. The Editor reserves the right to make any corrections or alterations he may deem necessary.

Articles should be submitted, if possible, in typescript, typed with double spacing, on one side of the paper only. African or other foreign words should be underlined (not in inverted commas) and where necessary followed by the English translation in brackets. For African vernacular words the orthography of the International African Institute should be followed.

Articles should where possible be divided by suitable headings and sub-headings. Paragraphs should not be numbered. Contributors are invited to add a summary to their articles.
