New members include Messrs. Alexander, Bramson, Longdon, Parrott, Major H. C. Davidson, Flight-Lieut. S. T. Freeman, Commander J. C. Hunsaker, Colonel Ogilvie, and Capt. S. Scaroni.

Since the last General Meeting there have been 12 lectures and three visits. An occasion of special interest was the lecture by Mr. A. H. G. Fokker on November 30th.

Minutes of Proceedings Nos. 4, 5, 6 and 7 (the last containing Mr. Fokker's lecture) have been issued, and No. 8 will follow shortly.

It is hoped to establish the Australasian branch during the ensuing quarter.

In presenting the Balance Sheet for the past year, it is of great satisfaction to note that a grant of 100 Guineas has recently been received from the Society of Motor Manufacturers and Traders, Limited, for 1924.
