Corporate Acquisitions and Mergers

Volume 1: U.K.

Volume 2: Continental Europe

1993 Basic Work and Supplement Service

by P. F. C. Begg

Begg's Corporate Acquisitions and Mergers is now well established as the leading work on the subject covering in two volumes all the countries of Western Europe. The frequency of publication of the updating Supplements is quarterly.

In addition to updating the work's coverage of the legal, financial, tax and administrative issues affecting acquisitions in any Western European country, the 1993 Supplements will also publish extensive explanation and commentary, authored by representatives of an eminent law firm in each country. In 1993, for the first time, coverage will also be provided of acquisitions law and practice in the EFTA countries of Switzerland, Austria, Sweden, Norway and Finland. The treatment of each country in the E.C. follows the same approach:

Regulatory Framework – Identifying and Valuing the Business – Structuring the Transaction – Potential Risks and Liabilities – Paying for the Acquisition – Shareholders' Agreements – Merger Control and Antitrust Laws – Market Dealings – Employment Issues – Tax Planning – Accounting for the Acquisition or Merger.

Subscribers in 1993 will receive a larger binder to replace the existing smaller Volume 2 binder, and approximately 700 pages of updating supplements.
