ATTENTION AUTHORS

POLICY: The Journal of Interamerican Studies and World Affairs will publish articles dealing with contemporary US-Latin American relations, US foreign policy toward Latin America and the foreign policies of those other American republics, and relations between Latin American nations and with the rest of the world. Articles shall also be considered that deal primarily with domestic Latin American politics when such have clear implications for foreign policy. In addition, the editors shall welcome essays from both scholars and public figures addressing political, social, economic, and cultural aspects of the international relations of Latin America. Lastly, we shall be pleased to review articles that dwell on the policy implications and relevance for Latin America of issues that have been explored in their technical and substantive details elsewhere.

This is a refereed journal. All submissions are sent to qualified reviewers to determine acceptance for publication.

Send manuscripts in duplicate to address below, typewritten and double spaced. Place footnotes, references, tables, and charts on separate pages following current Journal style. All articles submitted should be accompanied by an abstract of 150 words or less.

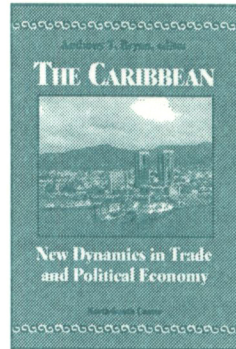

Upon acceptance, you will be asked to provide all tables and charts accompanying the manuscript on computer disks (either IBM-compatible or Macintosh) in addition to two complete, double-spaced printouts of disk material. Tables, charts, maps or other graphic materials will not be used unless provided on computer disks and in a file that is separate from that of the text. If not created by the author, permission to use such graphic materials must be provided in writing. Columns in tables and charts should use tabs instead of individual spacing. A brief biographical sketch of the author should accompany the final manuscript.

Correspondence regarding book reviews should be directed to the Book Review Editor at the Journal of Interamerican Studies and World Affairs, University of Miami, P.O. Box 248205, Coral Gables, FL, 33124-3027.

THE CARIBBEAN: NEW DYNAMICS IN TRADE AND POLITICAL ECONOMY

Anthony T. Bryan, editor

Prominent Caribbean scholars and policy experts analyze the implications for the Caribbean of a world in transition. Prospects for Cuba and Haiti, external debt, structural adjustment, trade liberalization, privatization, and foreign direct investment are presented in a new international context. This volume also covers the evolving Caribbean business environment, the political dynamic between public and private sectors, external challenges, intra-Caribbean relations, and the future of hemispheric cooperation.

"This is ... a timely book. It offers serious discussion and some workable suggestions for Caribbean economic survival in a difficult and challenging era."

– J.A. Braveboy-Wagner, Department of Political Science, The City University of New York

ISBN 1-56000-751-6, 272 pages, $19.95

DISTANT COUSINS: THE CARIBBEAN-LATIN AMERICAN RELATIONSHIP

edited by Anthony T. Bryan and Andrés Serbin

Profound cultural and political differences exist between Latin America and the Caribbean, despite their geographical proximity. Recent transformations in the global politico-economic system have brought about closer cooperation between the two areas, and this volume provides useful insights into their changing relationship. Contributors represent diverse academic backgrounds and provide a multidisciplinary analysis of topics, including geopolitics, ethnicity, economics, and culture. All those interested in the larger issue of regional cooperation will find the work useful.

ISBN: 1-57454-0003-3, 142 pages, paperback $19.95

Anthony T. Bryan, a Trinidad-born scholar, is director of the Caribbean Program and senior research associate at the North-South Center, University of Miami.

Andrés Serbin is director of the Venezuelan Institute of Politics and Social Studies and a professor at the School of Sociology and International Relations and the Graduate School of Social Sciences at the Central University of Venezuela.
