The American Journal of Law & Medicine - Editorial Board Completed for 1974.

John A. Norris, J.D., M.B.A., Editor-in-Chief of the American Journal of Law & Medicine, announces that the Journal's Board of Editors is now completed. Supplementing the Editorial Board positions previously listed in Medicolegal News, Vol 2 No 3, page 8 are: Neil L. Chayet, J.D., noted Consultant in Health Law; Bernard D. Hirsh, J.D., General Counsel of the American Medical Association; John F. Lombard, J.D., Health Law Consultant and Professor at Suffolk University Law School; Kevin M. McIntyre, M.D., J.D., Cardiologist at the West Roxbury Veterans Administration Hospital in Boston and Harvard Medical School; and the Honorable Max Rosenn, Justice, the United States Court of Appeals, Wilkes Barre, Pa. James Holzer J.D. has been appointed as Business Manager and Deanna E. Sagall Administrative Manager.

Announcements of the formation of the American Journal of Law & Medicine have been sent to leading U.S. and Canadian periodicals, professional organizations, and to the Deans of U.S. and Canadian medical, law and dental schools and to the medical, legal and insurance book publishers. Manuscripts and books for review purposes should be directed to ASLM Headquarters.

Target date for the inaugural issue is February 1975, and under ASLM new dues structure (see below) all 1975 members of the American Society of Law & Medicine, Inc. will receive a free subscription to this promising entrance of ASLM into the publication of a much-needed journal which will feature scholarly in-depth articles and reviews of books on topics related to the interdisciplinary study of law and medicine of interest and practical value to a large and diverse audience.

NOTICE TO ASLM MEMBERS:

To permit free distribution of ASLM's forthcoming biannual American Journal of Law & Medicine to all ASLM members and because of mounting clerical costs, the Executive Committee of the American Society of Law & Medicine, Inc. has set the following dues structure for the calendar year ending December 31, 1975:

Personal memberships: -	$25.00
Student memberships: -	$5.00
Corporate/Institution sponsor memberships: -	$150.00

(includes listing of 10 persons with unlimited additional listings over 10 at $15 each.)

All ASLM memberships include without additional charge:

- Annual subscription to Medicolegal News
- Annual subscription to American Journal of Law & Medicine
- Reduced membership registration fees to all ASLM programs, seminars, symposia and dinner meetings
- Free listing privileges for the ASLM Speaker-Instructor Bureau

- Free Counseling services from the ASLM Medicolegal Career Guidance Center
- Regular distribution of ASLM notices, news and announcements
- Free or special membership reductions for future ASLM services and publications.

New membership applications received after October 15, 1974 at the above dues assessment will automatically be extended without additional charge through December 31, 1975.

New applications received after July 1, 1975 may at the applicant's option be at 70% dues assessment to include the last half-year 1975.

The American Society of Law & Medicine, Inc., has been designated a nonprofit, tax exempt organization by the Internal Revenue Service (IRS ruling as 501 (c) (3) and 509 (2) (a)). ASLM membership charges are tax deductible as a business expense or as a charitable contribution.
