

SPRING/SUMMER, 1983

Vol. 8, Nos. 3 & 4

$4.00

REGISTERED BY AUSTRALIA POST
Publication No. VAW4651

Residential Care: Time For Change
NSW Legislation and Foster Parents
Child Care Policy
Parental Survival and the Hyperactive
Child Part Two

EDITORIAL

Margarita Frederico

2

FAMILY AND PARENTING ANALOGIES IN AUSTRALIAN RESIDENTIAL CHILD CARE: A TIME FOR CHANGE

3

Patricia Hansen and Frank Ainsworth

The authors explore the validity of the family as a model structure for residential care. They suggest an alternative model in which the staff are perceived as child development workers.

THE NEW SOUTH WALES COMMUNITY WELFARE ACT 1982 AND FOSTER PARENTS

6

Richard Chisholm

In this article the author discusses the New South Wales Community Welfare Act 1982 and considers its implications for foster parents.

'CHILD MALTREATMENT POLICY — VICTORIAN STYLE' or CAN THE TORTOISE-CRAB HYBRID EVER BE CHANGED INTO A MORE FUNCTIONAL ANIMAL?

12

Peter Boss

The paper is focussed on development of child maltreatment policy in Victoria.

CHILD CARE POLICY IN ITS SOCIAL CONTEXT

16

Lois Bryson

The author looks at changes in today's society and considers their implications for child care policy.

A COMPUTERISED ACCOUNTING SYSTEM FOR WELFARE AGENCIES

18

Graham Withers

The author suggests a model for accounting reporting in child welfare agencies.

PARENTAL SURVIVAL & THE HYPERACTIVE CHILD — PART TWO

19

Mary Reistroffer and Helen Zuber McVey

In the second part of a two part article on hyperactivity in children, the authors look at the kindergarten and early school period.

FEDERAL GOVERNMENT'S CONTRIBUTION TO CHILD CARE: THE CHILDREN'S SERVICES PROGRAM

28

Gouri Gopalakrishnan

In this article the structure and function of the Office of Child Care is discussed.

CASE NOTES

30

Extracts from papers presented at a seminar to honour the work of Ms. Joyce Grant, Senior Psychiatric Social Worker, Royal Children's Hospital.

Valedictory Address — Joyce Grant

Practice Developments — Professor Isabel Stamm

Children's Rights — Margarita Frederico

BOOK REVIEWS

38