The Pharmaceutical Industry and Dependency in the Third World

Gary Gereffi

"First rate scholarship in all respects. This book makes a valuable theoretical contribution to our understanding of development processes and presents a telling case for dependency theory."

Douglas C. Bennett, Temple University
C, $25.00. P, $9.95

Children of God's Fire

A Documentary History of Black Slavery in Brazil

Edited and Translated by Robert Edgar Conrad

"An excellent collection, impressively edited. Specialists and beginners alike will find it invaluable and fascinating."

Eugene Genovese, University of Rochester
C, $50.00. LPE, $16.50

Capitalist Control and Worker's Struggle in the Brazilian Auto Industry

John Humphrey

"An extremely original and valuable contribution to Latin American politics and economics, labor studies (world-wide), industrial studies, and Latin American history, this work raises a number of theoretical and methodological questions which are of general interest. The writing and the subject—the mass upsurge of metal workers in a repressive context—are dramatic and draw the reader into a confrontation of historic proportions."

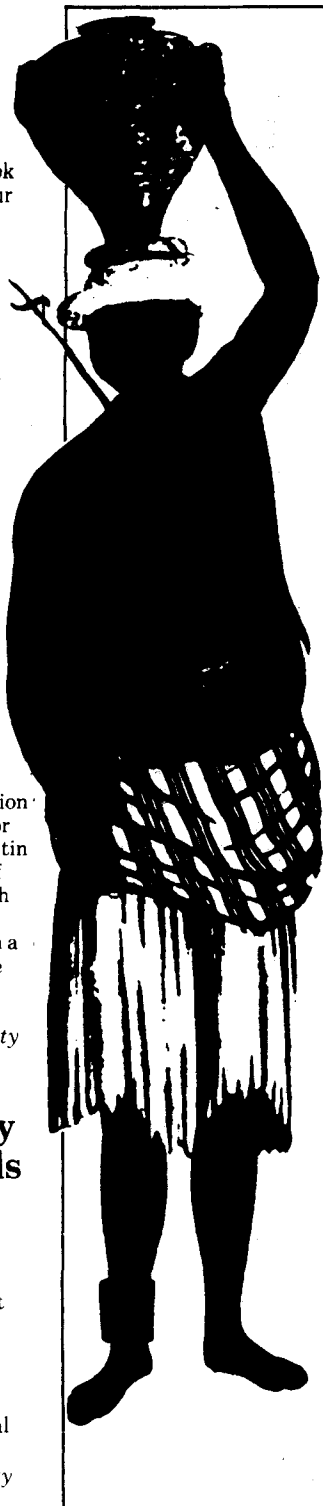

Timothy F. Harding, California State University at Los Angeles
$22.50

The Defense of Community in Peru's Central Highlands Peasant Struggle and Capitalist Transition, 1860-1940

Florescia E. Mallon

"Mallon's pioneering work constitutes the first rigorous attempt to show empirically how capitalism reached the very core of Andean society—the peasant village nucleus—and worked to transform it, over the space of a century or more, into a new, highly stratified social formation."

Peter F. Klarén, George Washington University
C, $32.50. LPE, $14.50

The New Bourgeoisie and The Limits of Dependency

Mining, Class, and Power in 'Revolutionary' Peru

David G. Becker

"A superb study of the transformation of state participation, the role of transnationals, and class relations in the Peruvian mining sector post-1968."

Peter Evans, Brown University
C, $35.00. P, $9.95

The Peruvian Experiment Reconsidered

Edited by Cynthia McClintock and Abraham F. Lowenthal

Fifteen authors, five Peruvian, bring the perspectives of history, economics, political science, and sociology to illuminate and clarify the Peruvian experiment in military-directed change from 1968 to 1980. This work is a follow-up to The Peruvian Experiment about which the Journal of Political Science said "This is the best book on contemporary Peru available today."

C, $45.00. P, $9.95

Coffee and the Growth of Agrarian Capitalism in Nineteenth-Century Puerto Rico

Laird W. Bergad

"Bergad's impressive study reviews some recently cultivated myths about Puerto Rico in the nineteenth century. His conclusions are imaginative, provocative, and very useful."

Stanley J. Stein, Princeton University
C, $27.50. LPE, $14.50

The Limits of State Autonomy

Post-Revolutionary Mexico

Nora Hamilton

"A fine piece of theoretically informed historical research. It develops an insightful theory of the state which avoids the twin pitfalls of treating the state as either an autonomous, voluntaristic actor or a determined product of class forces and economic structures... of great interest not only to Mexicanists but to Latin Americanists concerned with the possibilities and limits of social change, and to scholars of comparative revolutions outside the Latin American area."
