Outstanding Titles from Cambridge!

The Future of African Customary Law

*Edited by Jeanmarie Fenrich,
Paolo Galizzi, and Tracy E. Higgins*

$120.00: Hardback: 978-0-521-11853-8: 562 pp.

This book promotes discussion and understanding of customary law and explores its continued relevance in sub-Saharan Africa. It considers the characteristics of customary law and efforts to ascertain and codify customary law, and how this body of law differs in content, form, and status from legislation and common law.

Illegal Peace in Africa

An Inquiry into the Legality of Power-Sharing with Warlords, Rebels, and Junta

Jeremy I. Levitt

$99.00: Hardback: 978-0-521-88868-4: 314 pp.

This volume examines the legal and political efficacy of transitional political power-sharing between democratically constituted governments and the African warlords, rebels, or junta that seek to violently unseat them. This book addresses this issue and others through the prism of three West African case studies: Liberia, Sierra Leone, and Guinea-Bissau.

African Regional Trade Agreements as Legal Regimes

James Thuo Gathii

Cambridge International Trade and Economic Law

$105.00: Hardback: 978-0-521-76983-9: 524 pp.

This book is the first comprehensive analysis of the legal framework within which it is being pursued. It will fill a huge knowledge gap and serve as an invaluable teaching and research tool for policy makers in the public and private sectors, teachers, researchers and students of African trade and beyond.

Legal Aspects of Economic Integration in Africa

Richard Frimpong Oppong

$99.00: Hardback: 978-1-107-00717-8: 402 pp.

The author challenges the view that effective economic integration in Africa is hindered by purely socio-economic, political and infrastructural problems. Inspired by the comparative experiences of other regional economic communities and imbued with insights from constitutional, public and private international law, he argues that even if the socio-economic, political and infrastructural challenges were to disappear, the state of existing laws would hinder any progress.

NOTES ON STYLE FOR CONTRIBUTORS

The editors ask authors to observe the following notes on style in preparing their submissions. A full style guide is available on request from jal@soas.ac.uk.

General

Articles should be no longer than 12,000 words (including footnotes). Please also provide an abstract of no more than 150 words at the beginning of the article. Use footnotes, rather than endnotes.

Spelling

Use British English, but with the “ize”, not “ise”, suffix.

Capitalization

Please use lower case for professional titles and generic terms such as government, director, minister, common law. The titles of treaties, acts, agreements, declarations, resolutions, conventions, etc should be capitalized and not italicized.

Foreign words and phrases

Truly foreign words and phrases (except proper nouns) should be italicized and followed by a translation in square brackets. Please do not italicize words, phrases and abbreviations generally accepted in the English language.

Abbreviations

Do not use full stops for abbreviations or for initials within names. Article, chapter, section, ordinance, proclamation, paragraph, etc should be in full and in lower case in the text, but abbreviated in footnotes to art, chap, sec, ord, proc, para etc. Abbreviated forms used in the text must be in full in the first instance, followed by the abbreviated form/acronym in brackets. Per cent to be written in full in the text; use % in footnotes.

Punctuation

Punctuation should be “outside” quotation marks (unless the punctuation is clearly part of the quotation) and footnote cues should come after punctuation. Use “smart” double quotation marks, followed by single quotation marks within a quotation. Quotations more than five lines long in the text should be indented.

Numerals and dates

Numbers and ordinals from one to ten inclusive should be spelled out; after that use digits. However, always use digits for footnotes, percentages and references to sections or pages of a document.
