INTRODUCING INSTITUTIONAL MEMBERSHIP

Learn more at <http://bit.ly/AASinstitutional>

WHAT IS INSTITUTIONAL MEMBERSHIP?

AAS Institutional Memberships are available to universities and colleges, foundations, institutes, nonprofit and for-profit organizations, and research organizations that contribute to the advancement of the field of Asian Studies. This membership category is open to all research institutions and centers, as well as professional membership associations and other learned societies.

Additionally, Institutional Memberships allow foundations, libraries, museums, think tanks, and other organizations to join AAS as an organization and receive a list of AAS benefits.

WHY INSTITUTIONAL MEMBERSHIP?

Through the Institutional Memberships, organizations, departments, and Asian Studies programs may enjoy many of the same benefits offered to individual members, as well as a variety of discounts and services specifically designed with organizations in mind. Additionally, Institutional Members will be listed on the AAS website with a hyper-link directly to organization's website, placing your information at the fingertips of the full membership.

Institutional Members benefit from participation and networking at the Annual Conference, in addition to receiving many discounts related to the annual conference, student membership, and other AAS offerings.

All memberships are twelve months, beginning on the date of activation.

THE JOURNAL OF ASIAN STUDIES

The Journal of Asian Studies (JAS) has played a defining role in the field of Asian studies for over 75 years. JAS publishes the very best empirical and multidisciplinary work on Asia, spanning the arts, history, literature, the social sciences, and cultural studies. Experts around the world turn to this quarterly journal for the latest in-depth scholarship on Asia's past and present, for its extensive book reviews, and for its state-of-the-field essays on established and emerging topics. With coverage reaching from South and Southeast Asia to China, Inner Asia, and Northeast Asia, JAS welcomes broad comparative and transnational studies as well as essays emanating from fine-grained historical, cultural, political, and literary research. The journal also publishes clusters of papers that present new and vibrant discussions on specific themes and issues.
