Congress Continues to Attack Currency Manipulation as China Defies 6-20 Pressure For Now: the International Law Issues
by Claus D. Zimmerman

This insight discusses the international law rules regarding exchange rate manipulation and the U.S. domestic actions presented to respond to it. It does not take a position on whether China's exchange rate policy violates these rules, because that would require an economic assessment too complex for a brief treatment such as this.

The Anti-Counterfeiting Trade Agreement in the Public Eye
by Aaron K. Retberg

The Anti-Counterfeiting Trade Agreement (ACTA) is one of the most controversial international trade law treaties negotiated by the United States. Despite repeated assurances by the U.S. Trade Representative (USTR) that the treaty will require no changes to existing U.S. statutes, the USTR and European Commission jointly announced an ongoing negotiating draft of the ACTA on April 21, 2010. This insight discusses the procedural and substantive sources of the controversy and summarizes the most important provisions of the current ACTA draft.

SPECIAL ANNOUNCEMENTS

Video of ICJ Nominee Event Now Available
On June 28, ASIL hosted a reception for Jean D'Ormesson, the United States' nominee to the International Court of Justice. D'Ormesson was nominated by the U.S. national group to replace Judge Thomas D'Amato, who recently announced his retirement from the Court. Video featuring remarks by D'Ormesson and U.S. national group members John Bellinger and Harold Koh is now available here.

Summer Associates Briefing Video
Video from the first of ASIL's annual briefing series for summer associates at participating 2010 ASIL Law Firm Sponsors is now available for viewing online. This session's focus was perspectives on practice in international trade, finance, and investment. Featured guest speakers David Caron, ASIL President and Professor, University of California, Berkeley Law; Himanshu Das, Assistant General Counsel for International Affairs, U.S. Treasury Department; and Abby Cohen Smutny, Partner, White & Case LLP.

Nominations Sought for ASIL Leadership
The 2010-2011 Nominating Committee requests nominations for President-Elect, Vice Presidents, Executive Council Members, and Counselors to be elected at the March 2011 Annual Meeting. The Committee welcomes nominations from Society members willing to express their own willingness to serve, as well as nominations by Society members of other members. The deadline to submit candidates is August 15, 2010. For more information, click here.

Nominations Sought for AJIL Board of Editors
The Nominating Committee of the American Journal of International Law's Board of Editors invites nominations for members of the Board of Editors to be elected in the spring of 2011. Nominations should be submitted by September 15, 2010. For more information, click here.

PROGRAM OF WORK

In addition to publishing the American Journal of International Law, the ASIL offers a variety of information resources and participation opportunities for members as well as nonmembers. These programs, best viewed at www.asil.org, include publications such as International Legal Materials and Studies in Transnational Legal Policy; electronic bulletins such as ASIL Insights, International Law In Brief, and IL.post; events such as the Annual Meeting and other gatherings in Washington, D.C., and around the world; outreach programs for the judicial sector, the media, and other audiences; an array of resources on the ASIL Web site, such as the Electronic Information System for International Law (EISIL) and the Guide to Electronic Resources for International Law (ERG); and opportunities to be part of an active network bridging expert and nonexpert communities associated with the development of international law.

PHILANTHROPY AND THE SOCIETY

The ASIL accomplishes much of its work through charitable support. The Society is grateful to its many members who contribute to the annual fund and the endowment, the foundations whose grants fund special programs, and the law firms, publishers, universities, and others that sponsor ASIL activity. The Society is particularly honored to receive contributions through the Patrons program and to be included in our members' estate plans through the ASIL Heritage Circle. We recognize these contributors below.

PATRONS

Patrons of the Society contribute $10,000 or more to the ASIL Endowment for International Law. Patrons may also be recognized posthumously upon such a donation being made in their name.

AMERICAN JOURNAL OF INTERNATIONAL LAW

The views expressed in the articles, editorial comments, book reviews, and all other contributions to the AJIL are those of the individual authors and are not to be taken as representing the views of the Board of Editors or the American Society of International Law.

SUBMISSION OF MANUSCRIPTS

The American Journal of International Law (AJIL) invites submission of manuscripts on international law subjects. Its primary focus is on questions of public international law, including closely related issues of domestic law. It generally does not publish manuscripts focused on private or commercial law or on comparative or foreign law, including the internal law of the European Union.

The AJIL will not consider submissions whose content has been, or will be, published before it appears in this journal.

The AJIL does not require exclusive submissions. Priority consideration will, however, be accorded where the author states that the submission is exclusive for a specified period of at least six weeks and commits to accept an offer of publication within the specified time period. Authors should bear in mind that, as a professionally juried journal, the AJIL is rarely if ever able to make offers of publication in response to requests for expedited review within the time limits typically fixed by other journals that have made offers of publication.

Submissions should be in electronic form and should be transmitted as attachments to e-mail messages addressed to ajil@asil.org. Alternatively, a CD-ROM may be mailed to AJIL, American Society of International Law, 2223 Massachusetts Avenue, NW, Washington, DC 20008-2864, USA.

The AJIL currently uses Word 2007, but can convert manuscripts created in other word processing programs. Please specify the program used.

Format and style guidelines: All manuscripts should be double-spaced in 12-point Times New Roman type; these formatting requirements cover all text, quotations, and footnotes.

- The maximum length for lead articles is 100 letter-sized pages, formatted as indicated.
- The maximum length for “Current Developments” and “Notes and Comments” submissions is 30 letter-sized pages, formatted as indicated.

The AJIL generally conforms to the footnote style of The Bluebook: A Uniform System of Citation (19th ed. 2010) and the Chicago Manual of Style (16th ed. 2010). For further information on AJIL style and formatting guidelines, see the AJIL Style Guide, available online at www.asil.org/ajil_style_guide.pdf.

Book reviews are by invitation; however, you may suggest books for review to the AJIL Book Review Office, 2223 Massachusetts Avenue, NW, Washington, DC 20008-2864, USA. Books for review should be sent to the same address.
