

THE CLASSICAL ASSOCIATION

THE objects of the Classical Association are to promote the development and maintain the well-being of classical studies, and in particular (a) to impress upon public opinion the claim of such studies to an eminent place in the national scheme of education; (b) to improve the practice of classical teaching; (c) to encourage investigation and call attention to new discoveries; (d) to create opportunities for intercourse among lovers of classical learning.

Membership of the Association is open to men and women alike. The annual subscription is 5s. (life composition, £3 15s.), and there is an entrance fee of 5s. (not charged to Libraries). Members receive a copy of the annual Proceedings of the Association and, on payment of 2s. 6d., of The Year's Work in Classical Studies (both post free). They may also obtain the Classical Review and Classical Quarterly at reduced prices, provided that the subscriptions be paid before January 31st in each year. Subscriptions sent in later than that date must be at the rates offered to the general public.

Inquiries and applications for membership should be addressed to the Hon. Treasurer, Mr. H. A. Ormerod, 7, Grosvenor Terrace, Princes Park, Liverpool; or to either of the Hon. Secretaries, Professor Pearson, Trinity College, Cambridge, and Rev. G. C. Richards, Oriel College, Oxford; or to the Hon. Secretary of any of the district Branches—viz., Mr. E. W. V. Clifton, 26, Danesbury Road, Chorlton-cum-Hardy, near Manchester; Dr. G. A. Auden, Education Office, Margaret Street, Birmingham; Miss F. M. Rees, The University, Liverpool; Mr. E. P. Barker, 426, Woodborough Road, Nottingham; Miss P. K. Downes, Redland High School, Bristol; Mr. Basil Anderton, The Public Library, New Bridge Street, Newcastle-upon-Tyne; Miss C. E. THE MAKING OF LATIN

AN INTRODUCTION TO LATIN, GREEK, AND ENGLISH ETYMOLOGY

By R. S. CONWAY, F.B.A.

LITT.D. (CANTAB.), HON. LITT.D. (DUB.)

Hulme Professor of Latin and Indo-European Philology in the University of Manchester; Hon.
Fellow of Gonville and Caius College, Cambridge.

This little book offers to learners and teachers of Latin a simple account of the history of the language. To know something of the original meanings of words and idioms used by Latin authors adds fresh interest to their study and increases at the same time our understanding of English; and by tracing in the case of Latin the kind of changes which are always going on in human speech, we gain at least a glimpse of the fascinating contribution which the study of language makes to history. Even a brief survey of the development of one ancient language brings vividly before us many of the thoughts and feelings of our mental ancestors, and adds something to our general ideas of the growth of humanity.
