

British Journal of Music Education

Editors:

Pamela Burnard, University of Cambridge, UK
Gary Spruce, Open University, UK

The British Journal of Music Education is a fully refereed international journal, which aims to provide clear, stimulating and readable accounts of contemporary research in music education worldwide, together with a section containing extended book reviews which further current debates. In particular, the journal strives to strengthen connections between research and practice, so enhancing professional development and improving practice within the field of music education.

The range of subjects covers

- classroom teaching
- individual instrumental and vocal teaching
- music in higher education
- comparative music education
- teacher education
- music in the community.

Contributors include researchers and practitioners from schools, colleges and universities. Where appropriate, we encourage authors to include supplementary sound files and other multimedia material. These accompany articles in electronic format on Cambridge Journals Online.

Cambridge Opera Journal

Editors:

Suzanne Aspden, University of Oxford, UK
Steven Huebner, McGill University, Canada

Containing lively and provocative essays, Cambridge Opera Journal has a well-established reputation for publishing first-rate scholarship on opera in all its manifestations.

Cambridge Opera Journal not only contains material on all aspects of the European canon, it has now widened its scope to publish high-quality essays on American opera and musical theatre, on non-Western music theatres, and on contemporary works. Carefully researched and often illustrated with music examples and pictures, articles adopt a wide spectrum of critical approaches.

As well as major articles, each issue generally includes reviews on recent publications of importance in the field.

Cambridge Opera Journal Digital Archive 1989-1999

Organised Sound

EDITOR:

Leigh Landy

De Montfort University, Leicester, UK

Organised Sound is an international peer-reviewed journal which focuses on the rapidly developing methods and issues arising from the use of technology in music today.

It concentrates upon the impact which the application of technology is having upon music in a variety of genres, including multimedia, performance art, sound sculpture and music ranging from popular idioms to experimental electroacoustic composition. It provides a unique forum for anyone interested in electroacoustic music studies, its creation and related developments to share the results of their research as they affect musical issues. An accompanying CD/CD-ROM/DVD is sent to subscribers annually.

Journal of the Society for American Music

Instructions for Contributors

Article submissions should be sent to:

Prof. Leta Miller
Editor, Journal of the Society for American Music
University of California, Santa Cruz
e-mail: jsam@ucsc.edu

Authors should submit materials electronically to the e-mail address above. The following documents should be sent: cover letter; abstract of no more than 200 words; article text in MS Word with list of references (.doc); musical examples (.pdf or .jpg); and figures (.jpg). Electronic images should be sent as separate low-resolution jpegs rather than being embedded in the text; ideally each image should be less than 1 MB in size. (If the article is accepted, high resolution tiff or eps images will be required.) Only the cover letter should include your name, mailing address, telephone number, and e-mail address. The submission itself should be anonymous throughout the text and notes. Articles should range from 5,000 to 10,000 words (excluding notes). Longer articles will be considered but may be edited for length.

Journal of the Society for American Music employs humanities style for citations, following The Chicago Manual of Style, 15th edition. Use footnotes for explanatory material that need not appear in the main body of the article. At the end of the article, provide a list of references cited. All musical examples, figures, tables, and appendices should be numbered and contain captions, and the text should indicate approximate placement by the use of a callout, e.g., <FIG. 1 ABOUT HERE>. Callouts should be placed on a new line after the paragraph in which the figure or example is mentioned. A separate list of captions should be included. Contributors are responsible for obtaining permission to reproduce any material for which they do not hold copyright and for ensuring that the appropriate acknowledgments are included in their typescript. The cost of permissions and reproducing color illustrations will be the responsibility of the author. Upon acceptance of a submission, authors will be asked to assign copyright to the Society for American Music. JSAM does not review articles that are being considered for publication in another journal.

For additional information on preparing submissions, please visit <journals.cambridge.org/sam> or <www.american-music.org> to download a current PDF copy of the complete Instructions for Contributors.
