International Theory

A Journal of International Politics, Law and Philosophy

Editors

Duncan Snidal, University of Chicago, USA

Alexander Wendt, The Ohio State University, USA

International Theory (IT) promotes theoretical scholarship about the positive, legal, and normative aspects of world politics respectively. The journal is open to theory of absolutely all varieties and from all disciplines, provided it addresses problems of politics and pertains to the international. Scholarship is welcomed that uses evidence from the real world to advance theoretical arguments. However, the journal is intended as a forum where scholars can develop theoretical arguments in depth without an expectation of extensive empirical analysis. The goal is to promote communication and engagement across theoretical and disciplinary traditions.

European Political Science Review

SUBMISSION OF ARTICLES

The European Political Science Review (EPSR) publishes high quality scholarly research in political science, focusing on the most important debates in the discipline and demonstrating the highest possible standards in conceptualization, presentation and methodology. The EPSR is not concerned solely with European political issues nor exclusively for European scholars. We attempt to appeal to as wide and diverse a readership as possible. This readership may include both scholars and practitioners. Therefore articles should be written in as accessible a manner as possible with a minimum of jargon and insider language.

In addition to our primary concern with the quality of the articles to be published in the EPSR, there are several additional considerations for prospective authors:

- 1) EPSR will consider only original work for publication in the Journal. Any manuscript that contains extensive material – text, tables, figures – that has been published elsewhere is not suitable for the EPSR. One possible exception to this rule would be for articles that will appear in edited books, whether in whole or in part, at least six months after the appearance of the issue of the Journal.
- 2) The EPSR does not consider manuscripts that are under consideration for other journals, or articles that are derived directly from books under consideration elsewhere. We will ask any authors to confirm that the manuscript is not being submitted elsewhere. If you have questions about this policy in respect to individual manuscripts please contact the editors.
- 3) In so far as possible, the research methods and evidence used in manuscripts should be discussed in sufficient detail to allow other scholars to understand and replicate any findings. This requirement is more easily understood in reference to quantitative research, whether with aggregate data, survey data or experiments, but should also be followed with respect to qualitative analysis. We welcome authors to make their data sets available in the Cambridge University Press website for purposes of replication.
- 4) The EPSR uses the conventional double-blind process of peer review. Therefore, we request that you remove all references and citations that would identify the authors. If this is not done adequately we will return the manuscript to you for amendments. In addition to obvious mentions of previous publications by the authors, anonymity should be ensured by removing thanks to colleagues, references to own websites, etc.
- 5) The EPSR accepts only electronic submissions. Detailed instructions for contributors and the submission of manuscripts can be found at journals.cambridge.org/epsr
- 6) All editorial correspondence should be addressed to:
