

Notice to Contributors

Contributions within the journal's guidelines (see inside front cover) are invited and should be sent to either of the editors. Only one copy need be sent, but contributors should be sure to keep a copy of anything submitted. Contributors whose work is accepted for publication will be asked to supply, if possible, a disk containing the final version of the paper, but only hard copy should be submitted in the first instance. Authors will receive 50 free offprints of any paper published in the journal.

Preparation of Copy

In general, submissions should conform to the instructions in the current edition of Hart's Rules for Compositors and Readers. Note the following special requests:

Articles should be typed in double spacing and on one side of the paper only. Footnotes should be numbered consecutively and typed in double spacing on separate sheets. Greek quotations should be in Greek script and not transliterated.

Quotations in English, Latin, French etc. should be put in single inverted commas, e.g. ... the phrase 'dux femina facti' has ...

A quotation within a quoted passage has double inverted commas. Single words or self-contained phrases (such as faute de mieux) may be underlined to indicate italics. The following should not be underlined: ad loc., ap., c., cf., e.g., ibid., i.e., s.v., viz.

References should normally be given in the footnotes, in the following form:

BOOKS

G.H. Gellie, Sophocles, A Reading (Melbourne 1972) 53–78.

A.D. Trendall, The Red-Figured Vases of Lucania, Campania and Sicily 1 (Oxford 1967) 193–4, or 1.193–4.

Authors' initials should be stated, at least at their first mention.

ARTICLES

A.S. Henry, 'Euripides, Hippolytos 790–855', CQ 26 (1976) 229–31 or A.S. Henry (CQ 26 [1976] 229–31).

Both year and volume number should be given.

Abbreviations may follow the style of L'Année philologique.

ANCIENT AUTHORITIES

Ar. Birds 136; Arist. Nic. Eth. 3.9.7 or Arist. Pol. 1273a2; Hom. Il. 5.1 (not E 1); Cic. Phil. 2.19; Quint. 10.1.45; Soph. O.T. 225. Most single references to ancient authors and documents should be placed in the text, rather than in footnotes.

When a modern work is referred to several times in footnotes, it is preferred that its full title be given only in the first footnote in which it appears; subsequent references to the work should be by author's name and by this footnote number. Otherwise, cross-references inside an article should be kept to a minimum and, if used, the author should indicate the relevant page and line of the typescript.

The following abbreviations should be noted:

CAH 9.536; CIL 6.29271; FG^rH 115 F 225; PIR² C 763; RE 4A.629–753; TLL 6.2878.16.

B.C. should appear after, and A.D. before, the number of the year.
