History

Books and Journals from Cambridge University Press

History is the largest single subject area for the Press. It is a programme with both depth and breadth, ranging in subject matter from late antiquity to the present day, international in scope and embracing new approaches.

Our publishing includes major reference series, textbooks and monographs, as well as a collection of distinguished journals affiliated to the world's leading scholarly societies.

Together, they reflect the diversity of the discipline and offer an unmatched resource for today's historians.

SUBMISSION OF ARTICLES

If you want to submit an article for our editors to look at, please send it to:
Itinerario@hum.leidenuniv.nl

Authors submitting work to Itinerario are advised to follow the submission guidelines as closely as possible to minimise editorial changes to their work and thus minimise the chance of introducing errors inadvertently into your writing. The guidelines are based on and are similar to the recommendations found in the internationally known and respected Chicago Manual of Style, 15th edition, and readers are encouraged to refer to that work should they require clarification. Likewise, they can always address any particular questions to the editors at Itinerario@hum.leidenuniv.nl.

Submission guidelines can be found at <https://www.cambridge.org/core/journals/itinerario/information/instructions-contributors>

Effective Vol. 33 (2009), Itinerario - Journal of Imperial and Global Interactions, is being covered by the Clarivate Journal Citation Report.

has provided a platform for scholars researching the history of imperial and global interactions for over forty years. Published for the Leiden University Institute for History and mindful of the University's entangled history with empire and colonialism, we encourage authors to take a global perspective. We aim to publish contributions which critically evaluate histories of empires, institutions, ideas, and networks across the globe, and the ways in which their legacies continue to shape the contemporary world. Itinerario is committed to sharing the results of academic research through a liberal green open access policy.

Itinerario is affiliated with the Leiden Institute of Area Studies (LIAS) and the forum on European Expansion and Global Interaction (FEEGI) in the US.
