

TWO IMPORTANT OXFORD STUDIES OF EASTERN EUROPE

Oxford Regional Economic Atlas of
The U.S.S.R. and Eastern Europe

Prepared by the Intelligence Unit of The Economist and the Cartographic Department of the Clarendon Press, with the assistance of outstanding American experts. This is the economic authority on the U.S.S.R. and Eastern Europe, covering industry, minerals, agriculture, population, transportation, geology, soils, climate, ethnography, and all economic factors in topic maps and supplementary text. 10¼ x 7½". $10.00

Soviet Russian Nationalism

by FREDERICK C. BARGHOORN. "The theme of this impressive study is the content and significance of Soviet patriotism. This strange brew of chauvinistic nationalism and messianic socialism is as elusive as it is important, and it has been too long neglected. . . . Professor Barghoorn's book not only fills a gap; it provides the most comprehensive scholarly analysis of this phenomenon presently available."

HOW THE SOVIET SYSTEM WORKS

CULTURAL, PSYCHOLOGICAL AND SOCIAL THEMES

By RAYMOND A. BAUER, ALEX INKELES, and CLYDE KLUCK-HOHN. The strengths and weaknesses of the Soviet Union—social, cultural, and psychological—exposed by refugees from behind the Iron Curtain. Here is a new, altogether refreshing view of the Soviet citizen and his daily life, based on refugees' answers to hundreds of interviews and thousands of questionnaires administered by the Harvard Project on the Soviet Social System, sponsored by the U. S. Air Force. These facts about the people themselves will increase our understanding of what goes on in silence behind the Iron Curtain, and of overt changes in Soviet policy. A RUSSIAN RESEARCH CENTER BOOK. $4.75

BELORUSSIA: THE MAKING OF A NATION

NICHOLAS P. VAKAR's arresting case history in the emergence of modern nations—how Belorussia has been shaped by the two forces of nationalism and communism which have redrawn the map of the world since World War I. A RUSSIAN RESEARCH CENTER BOOK. $6.50

A BIBLIOGRAPHICAL GUIDE TO BELORUSSIA

By NICHOLAS P. VAKAR. A companion to BELORUSSIA: THE MAKING OF A NATION. It lists primary and secondary sources topically. There are over 2,200 entries in the Slavic and West European languages; most entries are annotated. A RUSSIAN RESEARCH CENTER BOOK. Paper covers. $2.00

The Emergence of Russian Panslavism, 1856-1870

MICHAEL BORO PETROVICH. Panslavism in its development as a nationalist movement in nineteenth-century Russia is analyzed in this important contribution to the history of ideas. The author traces the philosophical origins of the Russian Panslavic ideology, critically examines the period of its emergence, and shows how it emerged from Slavophilism as a distinct force in Russian foreign policy. $5.50
