The Asian Journal of International Law (AsianJIL) is the journal of the Asian Society of International Law.

Sign up for sample articles, table-of-content alerts and news emails here www.AsianJIL.org

AsianJIL publishes peer-reviewed scholarly articles and book reviews on public and private international law. Articles focus on Asian issues or bring one of the many Asian perspectives to bear on global issues, but AsianJIL is also of more general interest to scholars, practitioners, and policymakers located in or working on Asia.

TEL

TRANSNATIONAL ENVIRONMENTAL LAW

TEL is dedicated to the development of new ideas on law's contribution to environmental governance in a global context. It approaches legal and regulatory developments with an interest in the contribution of nonstate actors and an awareness of the multi-level governance context in which contemporary environmental law unfolds.

TEL warmly invites new work on topics within the scope of the journal from scholars, lawyers and professionals active in fields related to environmental law and governance.

Leiden Journal of International Law

Published for The Foundation of the Leiden Journal of International Law

Editors-in-Chief

Carsten Stahn, Leiden University, The Netherlands

Eric de Brabandere, Leiden University, The Netherlands

Firmly established as one of Europe's leading journals in the field, the Leiden Journal of International Law (LJIL) provides a forum for two vital areas, namely international legal theory and international dispute settlement. It is unique in providing the most comprehensive coverage of the world's most important international tribunals in The Hague (such as the ICJ, ICTY, ICC and others) and elsewhere, as well as examining new trends in international legal thinking. LJIL is essential reading for academics and practitioners who need to stay abreast of recent developments in these areas.

BIICL PARTNERSHIP OPPORTUNITIES

The demand for our work in a constantly changing world is growing and is limited only by our resources. We rely heavily on funding from law firms, corporations, international bodies, foundations, individuals and others. By supporting our work, donors and funders have an opportunity to make a positive and lasting difference around the world whilst raising their profile with our global network of legal practitioners, academics, in-house counsel, government officials, NGOs and students.

- BIICL Fund: Shaping our Future

This Fund provides an opportunity for members and friends to make unrestricted donations, enabling us to expand our team, refurbish our premises and promote our work to a wider audience. It also gives us the flexibility to respond more quickly to global events and to embark on projects or recruitment without waiting for funding.

- Funding for Research Fellowships

We are very grateful to the Vivmar Foundation, the Dorset Foundation and to Herbert Smith Freehills LLP for their ongoing support for Senior Research Fellowships. We are currently seeking funding for further research fellowships. Please see details on our website.

- The Bingham Appeal

The Bingham Centre for the Rule of Law was launched in 2010 and for the promotion and enhancement of the rule of law worldwide. We are aiming to raise £5million by 2020 to fund the Centre's growing network of talented research fellows and portfolio of applied research projects.

- The Arthur Watts Appeal

The Arthur Watts Senior Research Fellowship in Public International Law was founded in memory of the late Sir Arthur Watts, one of the leading international lawyers of his generation. The establishment of the Fellowship has been made possible by the generosity of numerous benefactors.

- Research Projects

Our core funders may also choose to support a specific research project in an area of interest to them. This could be any subject which has an international and comparative law or rule of law focus and can be global, regional or sector specific.

- Internship programmes

BIICL is fortunate to have the assistance of high quality interns from all over the world, and is seeking funding for a number of internships in all areas of BIICL's work.

Events and Sponsorship

BIICL runs a dynamic and topical programme of events throughout the year. Our events attract high profile speakers, many of whom are leaders in their field. Events are generally open to all BIICL members and the public. Sponsorship is available for many of our events including conferences, lectures, dinners and seminars in the UK and overseas.

WAYS TO GIVE

- The Gift Aid scheme allows BIICL to claim an additional 25p for each pound donated by UK taxpayers (including LLPs).
- US donors can donate via The International Rule of Law Project Inc. (IROLP), founded by supporters of BIICL and the Bingham Centre for the Rule of Law, and a 501 (c) 3 public charity in the US. For further information, please visit www.irolp.org.
- In the UK, a legacy in your will in favour of BIICL means that the value of your gift will be deducted from your estate before Inheritance Tax is calculated.
- Gifts of publicly quoted shares, exempt from capital gains tax liability, enable donors to claim tax relief on the current value of the shares making such gifts extremely tax-efficient.
- Gifts in kind such as printing services or venues and catering help BIICL to keep overheads low. If you might be able to help in this way, please contact our Development office.

BIICL ACTIVITIES

- BIICL Forums
 - The Institute enhances its research activities through three specialist forums:
 - The Investment Treaty Forum
 - The Competition Law Forum
 - The Product Liability Forum
 - These invitation only discussion and working groups bring together senior experts to share experiences and exchange opinions, contribute to policy initiatives, and promote research in these important areas of law and practice.
- Training and Development
 - BIICL engages in a range of research-related and practical training and development activities. We run annual intensive short courses.

The Bingham Centre for the Rule of Law

The Bingham Centre was launched in 2010. It is named after The Rt Hon Lord Bingham of Cornhill KG who promoted the maintenance and development of the rule of law. The Centre is devoted to the study and promotion of the rule of law worldwide, defining and implementing the rule of law as a universal and practical concept that upholds respect for human dignity and enhances economic development and political stability.
