

Cambridge

The Theatre of Tom Stoppard

Second Edition

ANTHONY JENKINS

This new edition of The Theatre of Tom Stoppard includes a fresh chapter on the most recent play, Happgood.

'This attractively written and always accessible study of the whole of Stoppard's oeuvre traces the playwright's work, showing how his strengths lie in his preoccupation with our essential humanity.'

The Stage and TV Today

£22.50 net Hc 0 521 37391 3 220 pp.
£7.95 net Pb 0 521 37974 1

The Theatre of Andrzej Wajda

MACIEJ KARPINSKI

This book provides the first account of the theatre work of the Polish director Andrzej Wajda who is probably better known as one of the leading film-makers in contemporary European cinema. Maciej Karpinski focuses especially on such milestone dramatic productions as the internationally acclaimed adaptations of Dostoyevsky. There is a full chronology of Wajda's theatrical career as well as photographs from productions.

£30.00 net 0 521 32246 4 153 pp.
Directors in Perspective

Shakespeare Survey 41

Shakespearean Stages and Staging (with an index to Surveys 31-40)

Edited by STANLEY WELLS

This latest edition of the Shakespeare Survey looks at stages and staging in both contemporary and modern productions, and includes an account of Stratford productions in 1986-7.

£30.00 net 0 521 36071 4 320 pp.

Vsevolod Meyerhold

ROBERT LEACH

This book traces the career of the Russian theatre director, Vsevolod Meyerhold, from the height of his fame and influence after the Revolution to his demise in the Stalinist era. Robert Leach examines Meyerhold's early years as a founding member of the Moscow Art Theatre with Stanislavsky and Nemirovich-Danchenko, his Symbolist period, his experiments with commedia dell'arte and other popular forms, to his glittering triumphs in the Tsarist imperial theatres and beyond.

£32.50 net 0 521 26739 0 248 pp.
Directors in Perspective

The Play Out of Context

Transferring Plays from Culture to Culture

Edited by HANNA SCOLNICOV and PETER HOLLAND

This volume of essays, based on papers presented at the Jerusalem Theatre Conference in 1986, examines the relationship between the play and its historical and cultural setting. The plays are examined in their own time and throughout history, with themes ranging from a Japanese interpretation of Chekhov, to Shakespeare in Nazi Germany, and to Racine borrowing from Sophocles.

£27.50 net 0 521 34433 6 235 pp.

Modernism to Realism on the Soviet Stage

Tairov – Vakhtangov – Okhlopkov

NICK WORRALL

Nick Worrall introduces these important Soviet theatre directors to theatre specialists and non-specialists alike, analysing individual productions and placing them within the political and cultural context of their time. Their active working life spanned the revolution and civil war; the conservative years of the 1930s and 1940s; and the more flexible and creative period of the late 1950s and 1960s.

£30.00 net 0 521 24763 2 256 pp.

Cambridge
University Press

The Edinburgh Building, Cambridge CB2 2RU

METHUEN drama

The Theatre Publishers

CONFERENCE OF THE BIRDS

The Story of Peter Brook in Africa

JOHN HEILPERN

'Apart from its interest to theatre specialists, the Conference of the Birds is as enthralling a piece of reportage as I have ever read.' Irving Wardle, The Times

Paperback: 0 413 61400 X £5.99 net

THE SHIFTING POINT

Forty Years of Theatrical Exploration: 1946-1987

PETER BROOK

In this lucid and illuminating book Peter Brook, the most consistently innovative director at work in western theatre, explores his entire career from his early West End and Stratford successes in the 1940s to his epic version of The Mababbarata, currently touring the world.

Paperback: 0 413 61280 5 £5.99 net

A DREAM OF PASSION

The Development of the Method

LEE STRASBERG

Here the teacher of the world's leading actors explains acting as he came to understand it – revealing how he and others added to the work of the great Stanislavski to develop the system known as the Method.

Paperback: 0 413 19670 4 £5.99 net

A WHISTLE IN THE DARK

and Other Plays

TOM MURPHY

'Tom Murphy is a marvellous writer.' Michael Coveney, Financial Times
Celebrated for their staggering poetry and fiercely satirical comedy, Tom Murphy's plays are making a major contribution to the current renaissance of Irish theatre.

Paperback: 0 413 61500 6 £4.95 net

THE LONG WAY ROUND

PETER HANDKE

Translated by Ralph Manheim

Peter Handke's first play in over a decade is a family drama that evokes the Europe of the 1980s. A powerfully theatrical and political text, it contrasts traditional village and rural life with that of modern cities and the mercenary existence of construction workers living in camps far from home.

Paperback: 0 413 62440 4 £4.99 net

Methuen *drama

Michelin House, 81 Fulham Road, London, SW3 6RB