THE AMERICAN CENTER FOR THE PERFORMING & CREATIVE ARTS

... is a unique two-year school for THEATRE, FILM, AND T.V.

... conceived by professional artists and educators in response to the needs of people and art in our time.

... is a non-profit school.

Our motto is: MANY IN ONE, because we believe that in each one of us there exists a source which can be expressed in MANY forms. The student will learn to integrate several disciplines of the performing Arts: an actor will know how a film cameraman feels, or how audio-visual equipment can express what he feels.

THE AMERICAN CENTER is not a school for specialists but for those who can perceive the interdependence of forms.

We believe in discipline, not regimentation; true knowledge not mimicry or gimmickry; human love, not slick surfaces.

THE CENTER has an ideal location within the Boston Center for the Arts, which houses an Opera Company, a Ballet Company, a Music School, several Theater Companies, and independent artists.

If you wish to know more about a nice place where heart and brain meet, write or call or drop in.

SO YOU'RE CONFUSED ABOUT YOUR ATA MEMBERSHIP?

It's certainly more complicated than it used to be.

Now that the Divisions are setting their own membership dues, publishing their own journals and providing their own benefits, the old price structure has changed. Membership in more than one division requires dues payment in more than one division. Each divisional membership includes membership in the American Theatre Association, which you pay only once.

AMERICAN COMMUNITY THEATRE ASSOCIATION includes:

Onstage, ACTA newsletter, projects, Community Theatre Festival, Floating Conference, International Amateur Theatre Festival, Placement service privileges, technical and consultative services, ATA membership and convention privileges.
Individual $20.00 Student $10.00 Family $35.00 Organization $50.00

CHILDREN'S THEATRE ASSOCIATION includes:

Children's Theatre Review, projects, International Children's Theatre Association, Placement service privileges, technical and consultative services, ATA membership and convention privileges.
Individual $17.50 Student $10.00 Family $35.00 Organization $50.00

SECONDARY SCHOOL THEATRE ASSOCIATION includes:

Secondary School Theatre, projects, Placement service privileges, technical and consultative services, ATA membership and convention privileges.
Individual $17.50 Student $10.00 Family $35.00 Organization $50.00

UNIVERSITY & COLLEGE THEATRE ASSOCIATION includes:

Educational Theatre Journal, UCTA newsletter, projects, College Theatre Festival, Placement service privileges, technical and consultative services, ATA membership and convention privileges.
Individual $20.00 Student $10.00 Family $35.00 Organization $50.00

AMERICAN THEATRE ASSOCIATION membership is designed for those with only a general interest in non-commercial theatre and carries voting membership for national officers, Theatre News, annual Directory and convention privileges.

Individual $10.00 Family $12.50 Organization $30.00
Sustaining Organization $100.00.

Multiple division membership in each category is available at the difference between the division dues and the corresponding dues in ATA. Multiple division membership for students is $5.00 for each additional division.

BEHIND THE MASK OF BAUHAUS FLIPPANCY

a great artist of stage and studio,
self-revealed in his most private statements

THE LETTERS AND DIARIES OF OSKAR SCHLEMMER

Selected and edited by TUT SCHLEMMER

Translated from the German by KRISHNA WINSTON

Among the creative geniuses of this century, Oskar Schlemmer was one of the most experimental and versatile. Easel and mural painter, sculptor, stage and costume designer, dancer, choreographer, teacher, he was also—as this book shows—a writer of uncommon pith as well. These documents of more than three decades—intimate, perceptive, revealing—are alive with the immediacy of fresh events and fresh ideas.

The highlight of course is the Bauhaus era: there are marvelously vivid pictures of that seminal time and of the artists who made it so: Gropius, Klee, Hindemith, Kandinsky, and the rest. There are notable experiments in theater and dance. There are the serious insights of a dedicated creator along with the hearty humor of a vital man in love with life. There are the terrible Hitler years, when to be an avant-garde artist was to be marked for oblivion...

In the history of twentieth-century art, Schlemmer and his circle take a place of high importance. This volume shows them not only as makers, but as men.

"An Outstanding Literary Event." John O. Killens

The Drama of Attack: Didactic Plays of the American Depression
Sam Smiley.

The dramas of some of America's most gifted playwrights are examined from the vantage point of classical criticism in this study of Depression Era plays. The author argues convincingly that these dramas share certain characteristics of the didactic form and reveals the universality and timelessness of their concerns.

Produced between 1930 and 1939, the 41 plays discussed are the works of a memorable galaxy, including Clifford Odets, Lillian Hellman, Clare Boothe, Langston Hughes, and Archibald MacLeish.

FOR PEOPLE WHO NEVER TAKE A CURTAIN CALL

Your work goes on behind-the-scenes, on the catwalk, at the control panel, or in the wardrobe room. You don't get the applause, or the rave notices — just the professional satisfaction of a job well done. But without your technical experience and skill there would be no show, no applause, no theatre. And now there is a magazine just for you, for the person involved in the technical aspects of theatre, THEATRE CRAFTS.

THEATRE CRAFTS is addressed to the people responsible for equipping, mounting and maintaining theatrical productions. It is for the person responsible for lighting, sound, set design, costuming, direction and the overall supervision of shows.

Start THEATRE CRAFTS coming your way with the latest issue. Be best informed in the latest developments in the technical theatre.

The Early Plays of Mikhail Bulgakov

Edited by Ellendea Proffer
Translated by Carl R. Proffer
and Ellendea Proffer

With this volume of translations Western readers can now become acquainted with a writer who deserves to be recognized as the best Russian playwright of the Soviet period. Bulgakov was deeply involved in all aspects of theatre and his plays reflect a keen sense of what is theatrically viable as well as a deep moral concern. The volume includes an extended biographical essay for each of the five plays. For performance rights, contact Indiana University Press or Ann Elmo Agency, New York.

Some of the best work in East Europe never gets out of the country.

So we'll take you to it, on two special travel seminars sponsored by The University of Chicago, September 5-18, 1972.

Film

Visits to film studios and schools in Belgrade, Budapest, and Rome. Meetings with young directors in each city, and screenings of recent works. A highlight is the visit to the Festival of the New Cinema at Pesaro, on the Adriatic coast of Italy.

Tour leader: Michael J. Kutza, Jr., Director of the Chicago International Film Festival.
Tentative Price: $826.

Theater

A study of avant-garde and experimental theater in East Berlin, Prague, and Wroclaw, with visits to Grotowski's Polish Laboratory Theater, the Berliner Ensemble, and experimental Czech theaters. Many consider these three cities the source of a strong revitalizing force in contemporary theater.

Tour leader: Lucille G. Strauss, actress and director; former Chairman of the Department of Drama at Columbia College (Chicago).
Tentative Price: $770.

an introduction to the Chinese Theatre

A. C. Scott

This broad survey provides a vivid picture of the manner in which the elements of song, speech, music, dance and costume are utilized in the classic Chinese art of the stage. In addition to Peking drama, the Cantonese and Kunshan styles are described, as are innovations in training and performance introduced by the Communist regime. The book contains synopses of twenty of the most famous plays of the Peking stage, and is illustrated with photographs and line drawings.

"Well-designed...beautifully illustrated." - Educational Theatre Journal.

"Valuable and interesting." - Players.

Drama and Reality: The European Theatre since Ibsen

RONALD GASKELL University of Bristol 'It's rare to find a critical survey of modern drama which manages to connect a sense of each play as a theatrical score with an understanding of its historical and literary background. Ronald Gaskell achieves this mixture of aestheticism and scholarship in his compact, fluent analysis of the work of eight playwrights: Ibsen, Chekhov, Synge, Lorca, Pirandello, Eliot, Brecht and Beckett.'—The Times Educational Supplement $6.75, paper $3.25

Ibsen: The Critical Heritage

EDITED BY MICHAEL EGAN University of Lancaster The latest volume in this highly acclaimed series documents the intensities of loyalty and hatred which Ibsen aroused in the English-speaking world between 1872 and 1906. The material includes excerpts from reviews and articles, critical studies, theatre notices, letters and allusions to Ibsen in fiction and parody, and among the writers represented are Edmund Gosse, Havelock Ellis, George Bernard Shaw, Henry James and James Joyce. $20.00

Drama and the Theatre with Radio, Film and Television

An Outline for the Student

EDITED BY JOHN RUSSELL BROWN University of Sussex Of considerable interest for those considering a career in the world of drama. The topics discussed include acting, production, design and equipment. The contributors are J. F. Arnott, Clive Barker, George Brandt, John Fernald, Kenneth Muir, Kenneth Parrott, Gordon Vallins, Graham Woodruff. $6.00, paper $3.00

Literature and Drama

With Special Reference to Shakespeare and his Contemporaries

STANLEY WELLS, Shakespeare Institute, University of Birmingham 'Tackles the problem frontally, marking out differences between text and performance, and facing the implications. It is a wise, unforced book, capable of leading the student to see how "plays go on growing and developing . . . (and) are capable of having a life of their own."'—Drama Concepts of Literature series $4.75, paper $2.25

Music in Shakespearean Tragedy

F. W. STERNFELD University of Oxford 'This extraordinarily careful and well documented study makes full use of all the resources of modern textual and musical scholarship. It is a thorough treatment of the various uses of music in Shakespearean tragedy: songs, instrumental music, and musical references and imagery in the texts. Should prove useful and suggestive for future Shakespearean criticism.'—Guardian $10.00

When you're considering Kliegl's Q-File memory control system, ask an expert. Anywhere in the world.

Sir Robert Harcourt Seymour
Expert
United Kingdom

"I do think the Q-file does some awfully clever tricks. Why else would the B.B.C. have bought so bloody many of them? Take that fade-within-fade business, where just a single bloke on the console runs up to four fades, up and down, at different rates, all at the same time. Worth the price of the machine alone. Even in dollars."

Tiger Wilson
Graduate Expert
U.S.A.

"There is no way for those other memory systems to even be in the same ball park with Q-File, man. I mean can they zip up 104 cues in two minutes, or pick up individual cues and pile 'em on or subtract them, one after the other, automatically, in memory. Can they do that, huh? So if you're gonna do it, man, get it together with Q-File."

M. Henri Navarre
Expert
France

"Le Q-File c'est magnifique! Il parle francais et anglais pour la Canadian Broadcasting qui vient d'en acheter une. Et pour pouvoir mettre tous les circuits au meme aiveau en appuyant sur un seul bouton semble miraculeux."

Herr Beleuchtungsmeister
Oberexpert
Germany

"Das Q-File system ist sehr logisch, praezise and flexibel. Wir habea eine Q-File hier welche ausgezeichnet gearbeitet hat, seitdem sie installiert wurde. Ich hoffe das sie weiter arbeitsam wird—sonst..."

Generalissimo Augusto Mendoza
Ruling Expert
South America

"Es la exquisita elegancia de Q-File la que nos conduce al éxtasis supremo. No tiene infinidad do potenciometros que confundan o obstruyan. Solo preciosos botones y tabulosos controles maestros. ¡Simplemente fantástico!"

Q-FILE, THE MOST RELIABLE LIGHTING CONTROL MEMORY SYSTEM IN THE WORLD, IS NOW OPERATING SUCCESSFULLY IN 32 DIFFERENT LOCATIONS.
