Lawrence Manley

"A masterly synthesis... It will be, I think, a landmark book."
— Stanley Fish

The Quattrocento Dialogue

Classical Tradition and Humanist Innovation

David Marsh

Marsh surveys the classical traditions of dialogue and traces the development of the form, and the rebirth of Ciceronian ideals, in key works by Quattrocento writers. He highlights devices and themes that were vital to the articulation of humanistic argument. Like the dialogue form itself, this analysis proceeds beyond literary questions to embrace larger issues of intellectual history. Harvard Studies in Comparative Literature, 35 $11.50

Milton's Theatrical Epic

The Invention and Design of Paradise Lost

John G. Demaray

Demaray places Paradise Lost against the background of Renaissance theatrical and literary forms—pageants, Baroque spectacles, masques, musical dramas, and Continental heroic works—and reveals the poem as a theatrical epic incorporating heroic conventions, theological materials, and elements of visual pageantry. This book offers original insights into the creative processes of Milton's imagination. illustrated $16.50

POLITICS IN RENAISSANCE VENICE
Robert Finlay

Did the Venetians discover the secret of a perfect constitution, or were they corrupt and tyrannical? Finlay searches for the reality between these two opposing views. Using contemporary diaries, he examines the nature of the patrician caste and presents Venice's corrupt politics as giving rise to a remarkably stable republic. $23.00

VIOLENCE IN EARLY RENAISSANCE VENICE
Guido Ruggiero
