

TAKING
FAITH
SERIOUSLY

EDITED BY
Mary Jo Bane
Brent Coffin
Richard Higgins

Amid increasingly contentious exchanges over fundamentalism, abortion rights, secularism, and pluralism, this book reminds us of the critical role that religion plays in the health and well-being of a democracy. Taking Faith Seriously offers nine case studies that describe the multiple and subtle roles that religion plays on many levels in our civic life.

THE SACRED GAZE

Religious Visual Culture in Theory and Practice

David Morgan

"The work presented in this book is very important.... By offering a workable set of analytical categories to be used in studying religious images, Morgan's excellent scholarship promises to advance the current move toward more sophisticated understandings of religious material culture by leaps and bounds."—JEANNE HALGREN KILDE,

The Way Things Are

Conversations with Huston Smith on the Spiritual Life

Huston Smith

Edited and with a Preface by Phil Cousineau

"Only a scholar as brave and plain-spoken as Huston Smith would try to produce a single, slim volume that makes sense of the world's vast diversity of faiths....

What's so inspiring is that, after decades of witnessing religious conflict, Smith's enthusiasm for the enduring lessons of faith remains undimmed."

Modern Homesteading and Spiritual Practice in America
REBECCA KNEALE GOULD

"This luminously written ethnography of the worlds that homesteaders make significantly broadens our understanding of modern American religion. In richly textured descriptions...Gould helps us understand how the tasks of clearing land, making bread, and building a garden wall were ways of taking on the most urgent issues of meaning and ethics."

JOURNAL OF FEMINIST STUDIES IN RELIGION

INDIANA
University Press
Journals

The Journal of Feminist Studies in Religion, the oldest and most influential interdisciplinary, inter-religious feminist academic journal in religious studies, is a channel for the publication of feminist scholarship in religion and a forum for discussion and dialogue among women and men of differing feminist perspectives. The journal has two parents: the academy, in which it is situated, and the feminist movement, from which it draws its nourishment and vision. Founded in 1985, it is published twice a year in spring and fall.

Jewish Social Studies

is instrumental in advancing the understanding of Jewish life and the Jewish past. Issues of identity and peoplehood, the vistas opened by the integration of gender as a primary category in the study of history, and the multiplicities inherent in the evolution of Jewish societies and cultures around the world and over time are themes of prime interest to the journal. In reconstructing the past, JSS also features work in anthropology, politics, sociology, religion and literature, as well as publishing specific case studies, engaging in theoretical discussion; all of which serve to rechart the boundaries of Jewish historical scholarship.
