

Psychiatric Bulletin

The Journal of Trends in Psychiatric Practice

November 1994

Volume 18 Number 11

Original papers

- Compulsory treatment in the community: some debating issues. T. Turner 657
- Compliance with depot medication and readmission to hospital of patients with schizophrenia. J. Gardner and O. Hill 660
- Recent government policy and legislation: an overview. S. Davies and E. Peck 662
- Rescinding responsibilities as nearest relative and displacing the nearest relative. F. Cooke, J. Watkins and C. Adams 665
- Attitudes of general practitioners and child psychiatrists to treatment methods. T. I. R. Mutale 668
- Providing a forensic psychiatric service to Cardiff Prison. P. L. Huckle and T. Williams 670
- Psychiatry and religion: a general psychiatrist's perspective. J. L. Cox 673
- A personal view of the role of the chaplain at the Reaside Clinic. J. Stephens 677

Audit

- Epilepsy in the mentally handicapped: a hospital survey. A. S. P. Amaladoss and M. Arumainayagam 680
- Guide for contributors to the Audit section. 682

Education

- Reflections on the teaching of systems thinking to psychiatric registrars. A. McFayden and J. Roberts 683
- An induction day for trainees in psychiatry. P. McLaren, P. MacDermott and S. Wood 687

Psychiatry and the media

- The films of Wim Wenders. S. A. Spence 689

Briefings

- 'Health of the Nation': measuring mental health outcomes. J. Wing, R. Curtis and A. Beevor 690
- Consent to medical treatment and people with learning disability. J. Curran and S. Hollins 691
- The Health Service Ombudsman. R. A. Oswald 694
- A letter from Bosnia: mission to investigate allegations of the sexual abuse of Bosnian Muslim women. G. C. Mezey 696

Correspondence

699

Wisdom for psychiatrists

- The wisdom of non-anger. L. Culliford 709

The College

- Examination results 710
- College reports 712
- NHS superannuation regulations 713

Obituaries

714

Video news

716

Miscellany

719

Forthcoming events

720