

EDITOR PACKS BAGS

This is the last issue of the ASA Newsletter that I will edit. After five years of association with the Newsletter and four years with Issue, I am resigning to begin studies at an institution that subscribes to neither—the Harvard Business School. I will have a good talk with the librarian there.

My work at the African Studies Association has brought enormous personal satisfaction, and I am honored to have served the membership during a period of great change and growth. Please direct all future correspondence regarding the Newsletter to Claudia Cox at the ASA Office at Brandeis University. Manuscripts for Issue should be sent to James Duffy.

Thank you for making the association so very worthwhile.

—Paula S. Barker

AFRICAN STUDIES NEWSLETTER, Vol. VIII, No. 3, June 1975. Editor: Paula S. Barker. Production: John Hevelin. Published six times a year by the African Studies Association. Contributions should be sent to: African Studies Newsletter, 218 Shiffman Center, Brandeis University, Waltham, Massachusetts 02154. Receipt of the African Studies Newsletter, the African Studies Review, and Issue is automatic with membership in the African Studies Association. To join the Association, write the ASA at 218 Shiffman Center, Brandeis University, Waltham, Massachusetts 02154. Domestic claims for non-receipt of issues must be made within six months of the month of publication—overseas claims must be made within one year.
